WEATHER FORECAST

CARIBBEAN

These lush and leafy tropical islands have it pretty good most of the time, with year-round temperatures averaging out at a gorgeous 24-29°C. If you have specific interests like nesting turtles, migrating birds and submarine species, then the best time to visit varies. Generally though, December to April are best. It's slightly cooler (particularly in the Bahamas, Turks & Caicos and Bermuda), drier and less humid. May to November can be a little soggy, with hurricanes possible from July to October (though May to June and late November to mid-December are great for beating the crowds, and high season prices).

MEXICO

Mexico is a great year-rounder, region depending. It goes without saying you'll find cooler temperatures at higher elevations, but with our featured destinations being at sea level, warmer, tropical conditions are more often the norm. Along the Pacific and Caribbean Coasts, November to March/April are blissfully warm and sunny with lower humidity, and cooler nights, while May to mid-October, much like the Caribbean, will typically receive tropical showers, starting around 4-5pm, lasting a few hours, usually ending just as quickly as they started, and cooling the air for the evenings. Hurricane season can also particularly affect the Yucatán Peninsula and Southern Pacific Coast, especially from June to October.

MALDIVES

Each year, the Maldives is visited by two monsoons: the south-west from May to October, and the north-east from November to April. Generally, the south-west monsoon brings more wind and rain in June and July, so the driest (and best) months to visit tend to be December to March (January onwards being an awesome time to seek out marine marvels like whale sharks). And though November's weather can be a little unpredictable with the odd short sharp shower, the sea is warm, manta rays are more likely to show their faces, and you get more bang for your buck from all sorts of special offers.

MAURITIUS

Being a little further from the Equator than the Maldives and Seychelles, there is a little difference when it comes to the best time to visit Mauritius: the most pleasant months for simply basking in the sun being April to June and September to December. Slap-bang in cyclone season, December to March is still perfect for scuba-diving; while October – the driest month of the year (and a little less humid), is equally great whether you're spending your days on the beach, exploring the French colonial houses, Indian temples, botanical gardens and imaginative animal parks, or hiking, quad-biking and zip-lining.

SEYCHELLES

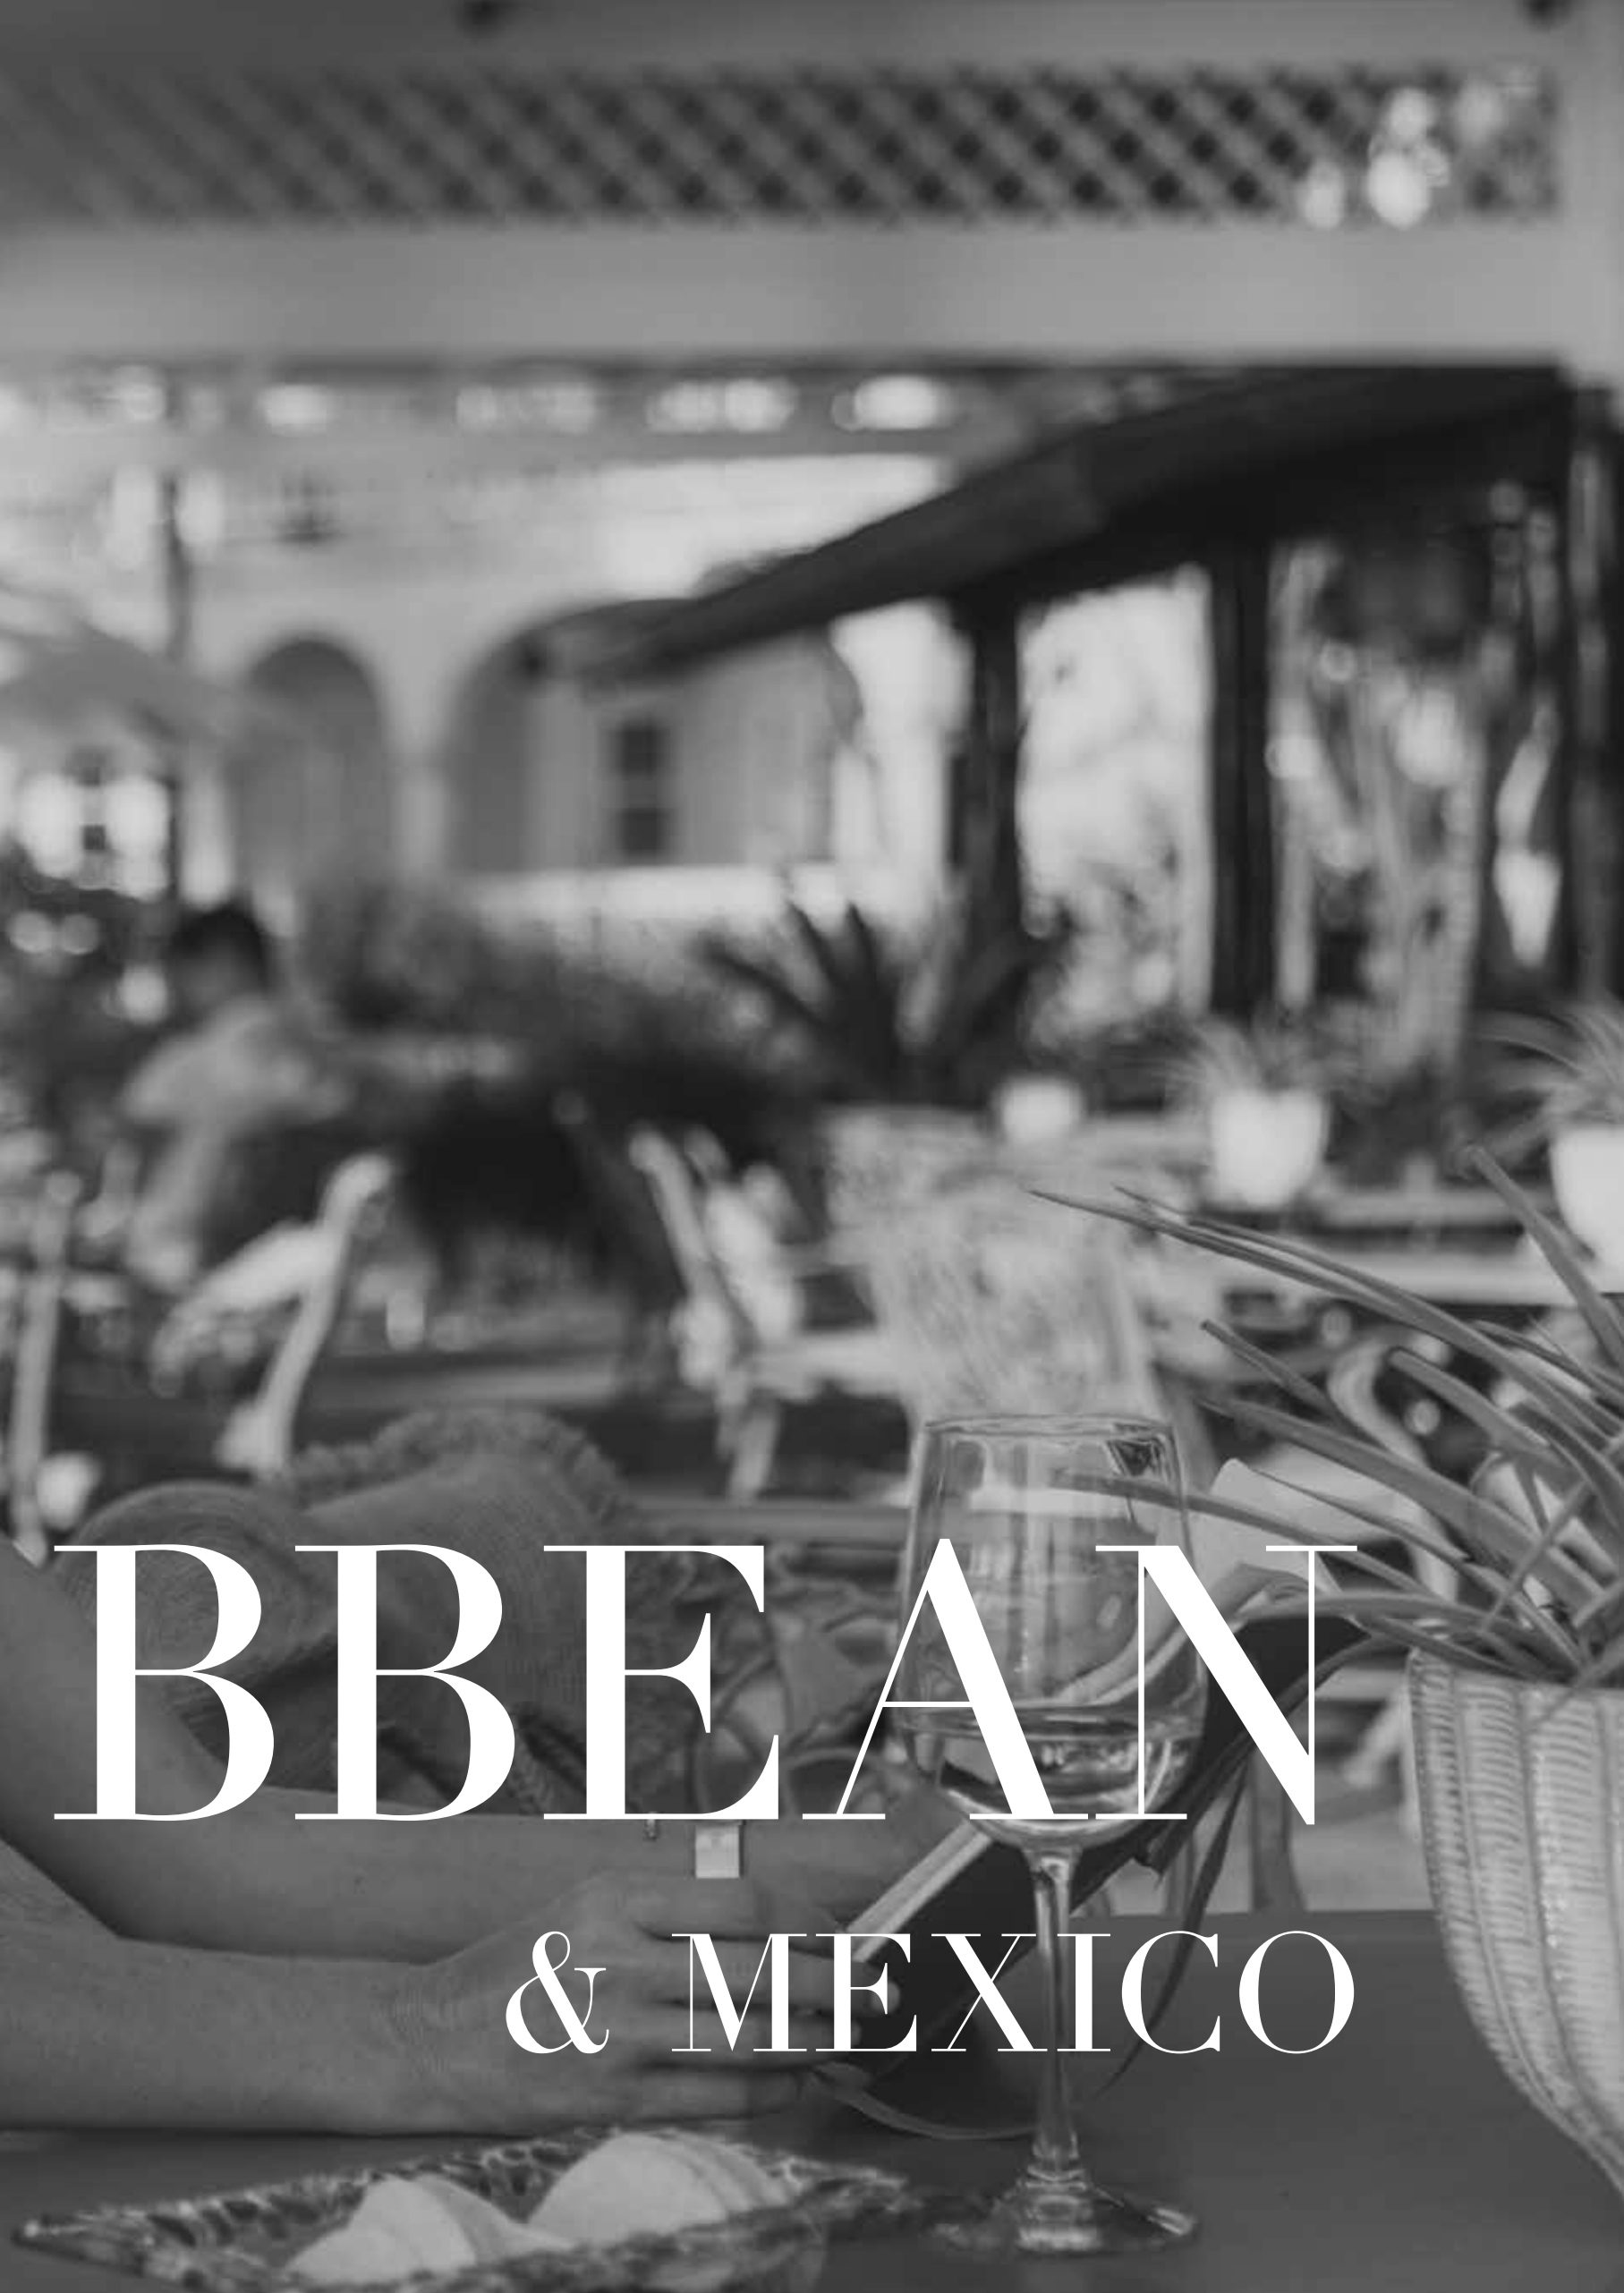

Warm temperatures year-round mean any time is good to go to the Seychelles, but for bird-watching, hiking, wind-surfing and sailing, May to September's south-east tradewinds, drier weather and steady winds are ideal (though it can get a little too choppy for sea-swimming and seaweed does get blown onto the southern coastlines of Mahé and Praslin). Interspersed between the south-east and north-west monsoons, April and October are often considered the ultimate months as winds have died down, and sunny days are the norm; while April to May and October to November's superb water temperatures and visibility mean excellent conditions for swimming, snorkelling and diving.

ARABIA

Arabia draws in beach lovers and culture vultures the world over, thanks to its year-round sunshine, blue skies, and minimal rain. Sun-seekers will love October to April, when temperatures hover at a pleasant 25-28°C, the ocean is perfect for swimming, and those travelling around Oman will find the weather is pleasant everywhere – from the Mussandam Peninsula, and the Hajar Mountains, to the rose blossoms in Jebel Akhdar, and Salalah. June to September is best avoided as the humidity can be unbearable and temperatures can sky-rocket to 45°C and beyond (though if you can bear the heat it's a great time to bag a deal).

Four Seasons Resort & Residences Anguilla

Imagine walking into the pages of Wallpaper* magazine and you'll instantly 'get' how it feels to stay here. Blindingly white geometric architecture envelops Kelly Wearstler's eye-catching contemporary-castaway interiors – a captivating mix of naturally themed tints, touches and textures. And while the design is as far away from the classic definition of 'tropical' as it could be, it effortlessly marries natural elements with man-made modernity, and more than matches the dreamy, off-the-radar location – between two of Anguilla's most beautiful white-sand beaches, Meads Bay and Barnes Bay. Vast yet serene, it's also the most family friendly resort you'll find on the island.

LAZY

MALLIOUHANA, AN AUBERGE RESORT

44 Rooms & Suites / 15 minutes by car from Anguilla Airport

Fresh from a top-to-toe reboot, ‘Malli’ is once again one of the island’s must-stays – just as adored by staff and guests as it was in the 80s. Classic Caribbean-style rooms reflect the jaw-dropping location, breezy and spacious public areas come with enriched ocean views, and the dramatic, alfresco restaurant is well on its way to becoming one of the island’s best.

DAYS

65 Rooms & Suites / 10 minutes by car from Anguilla Airport

The first hotel on Anguilla's secluded East End (known for its powdery sands, wow-factor villas and brilliant beach bars), Zemi stretches along two pristine miles of Shoal Bay East (one of the world's best beaches). One- to three-bedroom accommodations overlook the Caribbean Sea or national park, and a host of other unique highlights will have you falling hard and fast for this boutique beauty.

BELMOND CAP JULUCA

97 Rooms / 15 minutes by car from Anguilla Airport

Beaches are what the Caribbean does best. But this one's an absolute stunner: a two-mile-long sweep of flawless, soft white sand with plenty of room to just while away the hours. There's also masses of room to stretch out in the enormous villas, all of which are positively private – just one of many reasons it's so popular with movie stars and moguls. A cosmopolitan feel resounds throughout with Moorish architecture, Moroccan fabrics, Brazilian furniture and Italianate flooring, while the cuisine criss-crosses from 'Euro-bbean' to Pan-Asian. It's a real get-away-from-it-all kind of place, serene and romantic, and the perfect spot for a honeymoon.

This is as idyllic as it gets – an exclusive island two miles from the coast, with textbook-perfect beaches. Arriving by private boat, the resort’s understated elegance combines colonial style with crisp modernity... and it’s stunning. Life here is all about bike rides to the rustic 18th-century sugar mill, iced frappés on private shores, and sunset barbecues. The laid-back atmosphere is ideal for children – there are no locks on the doors, transport is by golf buggy or bike – and it’s a real-life Treasure Island experience, with a bounty of island wildlife that really adds to the fun.

Families are spoilt for choice with spacious rooms and suites scattered across the island for smaller families, to villas, beach homes, and jaw-dropping estate homes (Lazy Lizard is a particular favourite). Two estate suites are ideal for honeymooners, and connect to one or two other suites if needs be.

Unashamedly family friendly, all restaurants have kids' menus, but the real star here is the kids' club, where 3-12 year-olds are treated like mini-royalty with the chance to explore the unique eco-system and meet the island's other residents – gigantic multi-coloured starfish, prehistoric pelicans, quirky sheep and, season depending, the endangered Hawksbill turtle.

Blue Waters & The Cove Suites at Blue Waters

Antigua has some of the Caribbean's favourite resorts, but for family friendly tropical luxury – given a thoroughly modern twist during a recent facelift – you can't go wrong with Blue Waters & The Cove Suites. Located on Soldier's Bay, at the north-east corner of the island and spread over 17 immaculately kept, bougainvillea-strewn acres, it's spacious enough that even at full occupancy it doesn't feel crowded. That doesn't mean it lacks atmosphere though – there's a friendly buzz throughout the hub of the resort, and the service is personal, welcoming and unobtrusive. Customise your experience with the all-inclusive option to help keep the budget in check.

CURTAIN BLUFF

We really wouldn't blame you if you didn't set foot beyond this resort, however long you stay. After all, whether you're torn between beaches (the dramatic, windswept Grace Bay, or calm, serene Morris Bay Beach); sampling elevenses, afternoon tea, or canapés at cocktail hour (we say do all three!), life here is pretty idyllic. The best part? It's a smart all-inclusive with a club-like ambience, set on the less-developed south-west coast. The ubiquitous owner, Chelle Hulford, is the resort's beating heart, and the habitual guests its soul: where retirees, romantics, families and friends hang out harmoniously, basking in almost-infinite activities and gorgeous gourmet delights.

A SLICE OF HEAVEN

Antigua

They say you can't improve on paradise, but we would beg to differ; as a member of Leading Hotels of the World, the super-meticulous team here ensures even the most discerning guest would struggle to find any niggles. All 82 suites face the sea, and the sprawling beach is one of the best we've seen in this part of the world. The décor – more modern than most Caribbean resorts – is a refreshing change from traditional tropical palettes, and the dedicated couples' and family areas, set at each end of the resort, result in the perfect getaway for everyone.

THE COVE AT ATLANTIS

600 Suites / 30 minutes by car from Nassau Airport

Towering above two of the most magnificent beaches in the Bahamas, The Cove is the most fashionable of the addresses at Atlantis: a stunning contemporary all-suite resort set amongst the Bahamian mega-resort's tropical gardens and freshwater pools. It's somewhere that welcomes you into two very different but equally appealing worlds: one of unparalleled accommodation, heavenly views, uncrowded grounds and wonderfully warm Bahamian hospitality at The Cove; and at Atlantis, one that's chock-full of adventure. The Cove's gorgeous beach is quiet and relaxed; the adults-only ultra-pool the epitome of South Beach cool; and the dining, an exciting fusion of Japanese and Peruvian cuisine.

THE OCEAN CLUB, A FOUR SEASONS RESORT

Once the private estate of Huntington Hartford II (and featured in James Bond blockbuster, Casino Royale), this gorgeous resort has many reasons to check-in. The British-colonial architecture simply smoulders among its exquisite Versailles-inspired gardens, 12th-century Augustinian cloister, and miles of picture-perfect soft dune beaches. At its heart is discreet and exemplary service, courtesy of the butlers, beach attendants et al, and a luxurious, understated atmosphere, all without a sniff of pretence. There's a new beachfront experience at the infinity-edged Ocean Pool and Grill, and you can make full use of the casino, shops, restaurants and bars at Atlantis.

SANDY LANE

THE address in Barbados, this is a resort where all the right people come to see and be seen, where food runs the gamut from healthy to gourmet, and where the gorgeous coral beach boasts pure, pale sands.

Few resorts can boast a pedigree matching Sandy Lane's, or the shower of awards and accolades received since first opening its doors in 1961. This is a place with everything to satisfy even the most restless of souls, where the vast, gadget-filled rooms, suites, penthouses and the palatial villa are all unashamedly fancy and dripping in ravishing soft furnishings.

Out and about you'll find the resort has a fully-serviced 1000-foot crescent of white-sand beach; its own fleet of Rolls Royce Phantoms; three championship golf courses and eight floodlight tennis courts; two padel tennis courts; a magnificent 47,000-square-foot spa; and an open invitation to The Treehouse Club for youngsters to create memories of their own.

Sandy Lane has pulled out all the stops when it comes to food too, so you'll find an excellent choice of cuisine between the four restaurants, each amongst Barbados' best. It's little wonder Sandy-Laners of all ages keep coming back for more.

It's rare you find a hotel that, in our view, has star quality like Royal Pavilion, which while retaining a definite air of exclusivity, effortlessly appeals to the melting pot of guests who flock back every year. The adults-only high season means it's perfect for honeymooners, and families can't get enough of the world-class facilities come summer and Christmas. Built in the 1940's, it's closer to the sands than most, the sophisticated colonial-style architecture is set in lush, tropical grounds, and the elegant pool provides refreshing respite when you need a breather from the beach (one of the island's best).

Run by the O’Hara family for generations, and big sister to The Sandpiper, Coral Reef Club feels like a private luxury colonial home with a hands-on approach that ensures every detail is taken care of.

Interiors are stylish with wooden balustrading, fretwork and shuttered windows; wrap-around balconies and individual plunge pools which, along with the intimate ambiance, all add up to making this one of the finest hotels in the West Indies. You’ll find activities galore here, including a dive school, catamaran cruises, two swimming pools, complimentary sessions with a tennis pro and two 18-hole golf courses just a few minutes’ drive away.

And to cap it all, there’s the luxuriously-appointed spa hosting four private treatment rooms with their own gardens, a couples’ outdoor treatment pavilion, a hydro-pool with shaded cabanas for post-treatment relaxation and a steamy thermal suite.

Faultless, fabulous and not to be missed, recently-restyled Coral Reef Club (a member of ‘Small Luxury Hotels of the World’), continues to reign as one of the West Indies’ finest hotels.

COBBLERS COVE

The antithesis of the west coast's ritzier resorts, Cobblers Cove is a real boutique beauty. Low-key, civilised and oh-so-discreet, you'd be forgiven for not even knowing it was there. For us, it oozes quintessential Caribbean charm: just a stroll through the lush exotic gardens en-route to your suite instantly lifts the spirit (and if you like these gardens, you'll love the hotel's horticultural hotspots tour). The 40 country cottage-style suites are so fresh and airy, they feel more spacious than they appear (and believe us, they're roomy anyway). But what we love the most here is the ambience – warm, easy-going and super-friendly.

If you like the sound of Coral Reef Club, but want somewhere a little more intimate and laid-back, look no further than its little sister, The Sandpiper. Wrapped in pink, white and purple bougainvillea, neutral tones throughout the plantation-style accommodation are the perfect ally to the island-inspired artwork and Caribbean-contemporary furnishings inside, and the vibrant tones of the tropical vistas beyond. The vibe here is slightly more youthful than its ‘big’ sister too: run by Cynthia O’Hara’s daughter Karen and her husband Wayne, who, together with their close-knit team, welcome you with open arms, and brilliantly anticipate every single need.

SHOP... SIP... RELAX

NEW YORK & BERMUDA / 11 DAYS

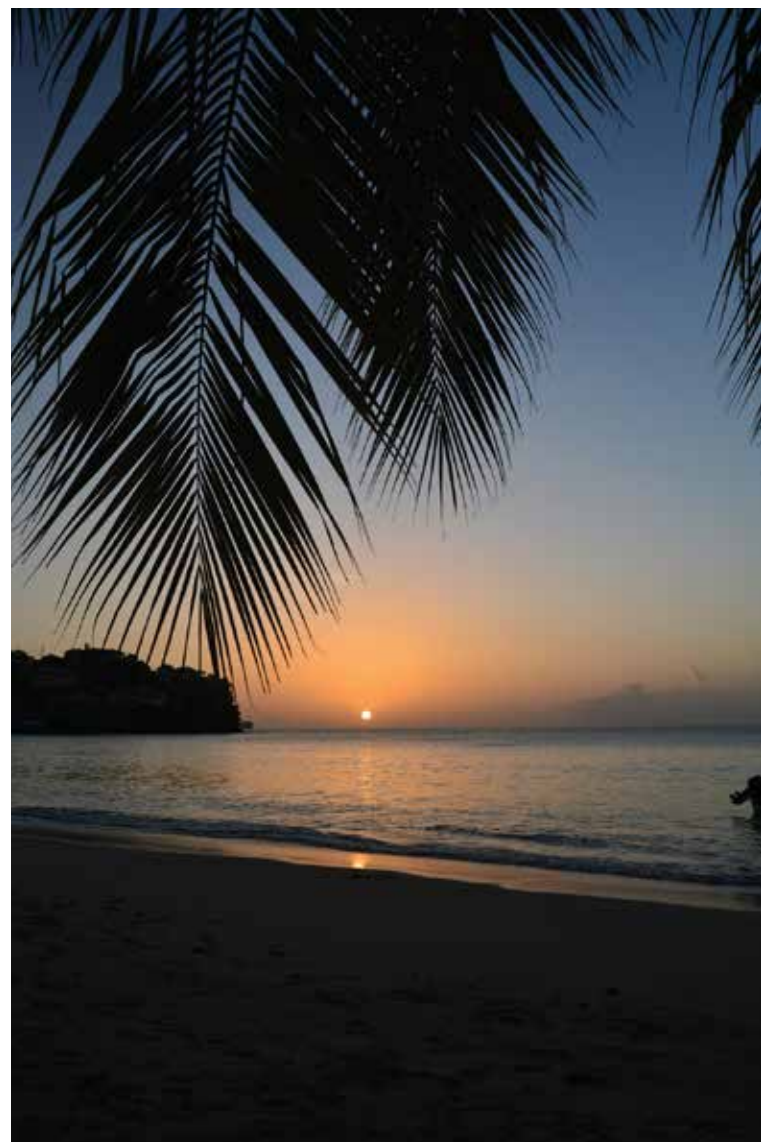

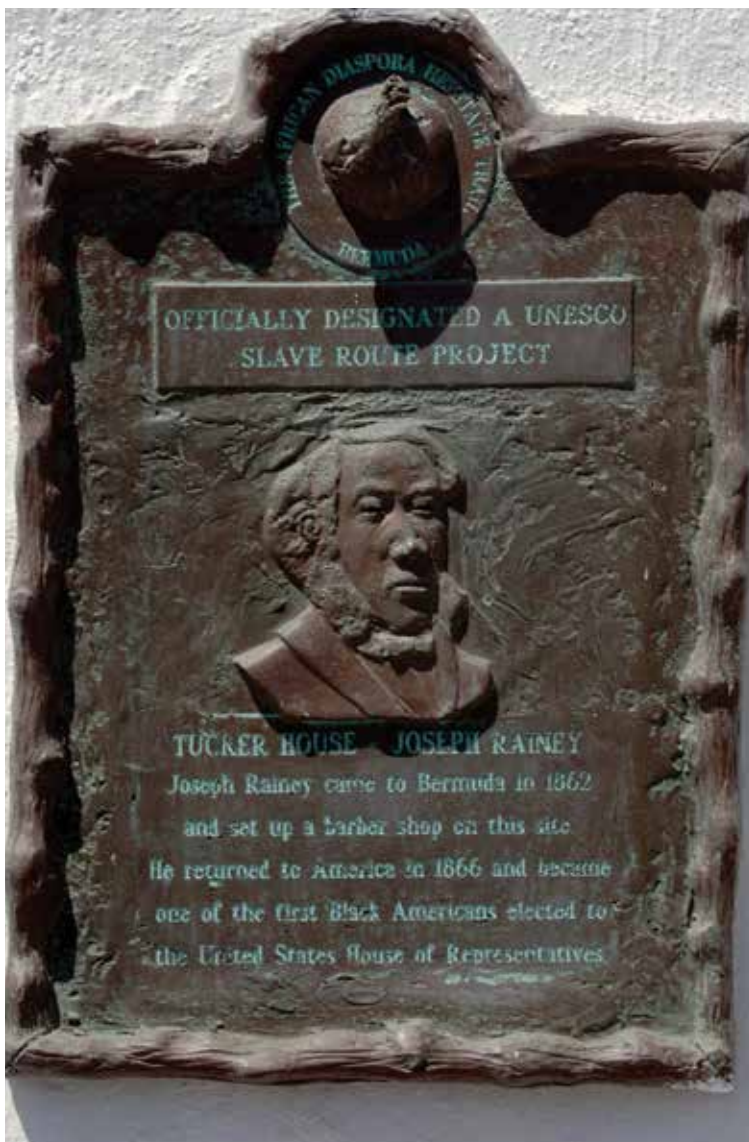

The streets of the Big Apple serve up an eclectic melting pot of culture and chaos, which at times can overwhelm the locals, let alone visitors. But you can't help but fall in love with New York... whether you're there for art, music or fashion; to dine at iconic venues like The Russian Tea Room or Buddakan; shop 'til you drop; or explore all its outdoor delights, from Central Park right down to the Statue of Liberty. Three nights here is by no means long enough to fit in all of its magical sights and sounds, so if you're a first-timer and don't know where to start, we'd suggest a visit to the Empire State Building, One World Trade Centre and 'Top of the Rock' for the best views of the city. Most will want to venture up 5th Avenue for shopping, and undoubtedly Central Park too, but do take the trip down Broadway to NoHo and SoHo too, for a more eclectic, yet just as rewarding shopping experience.

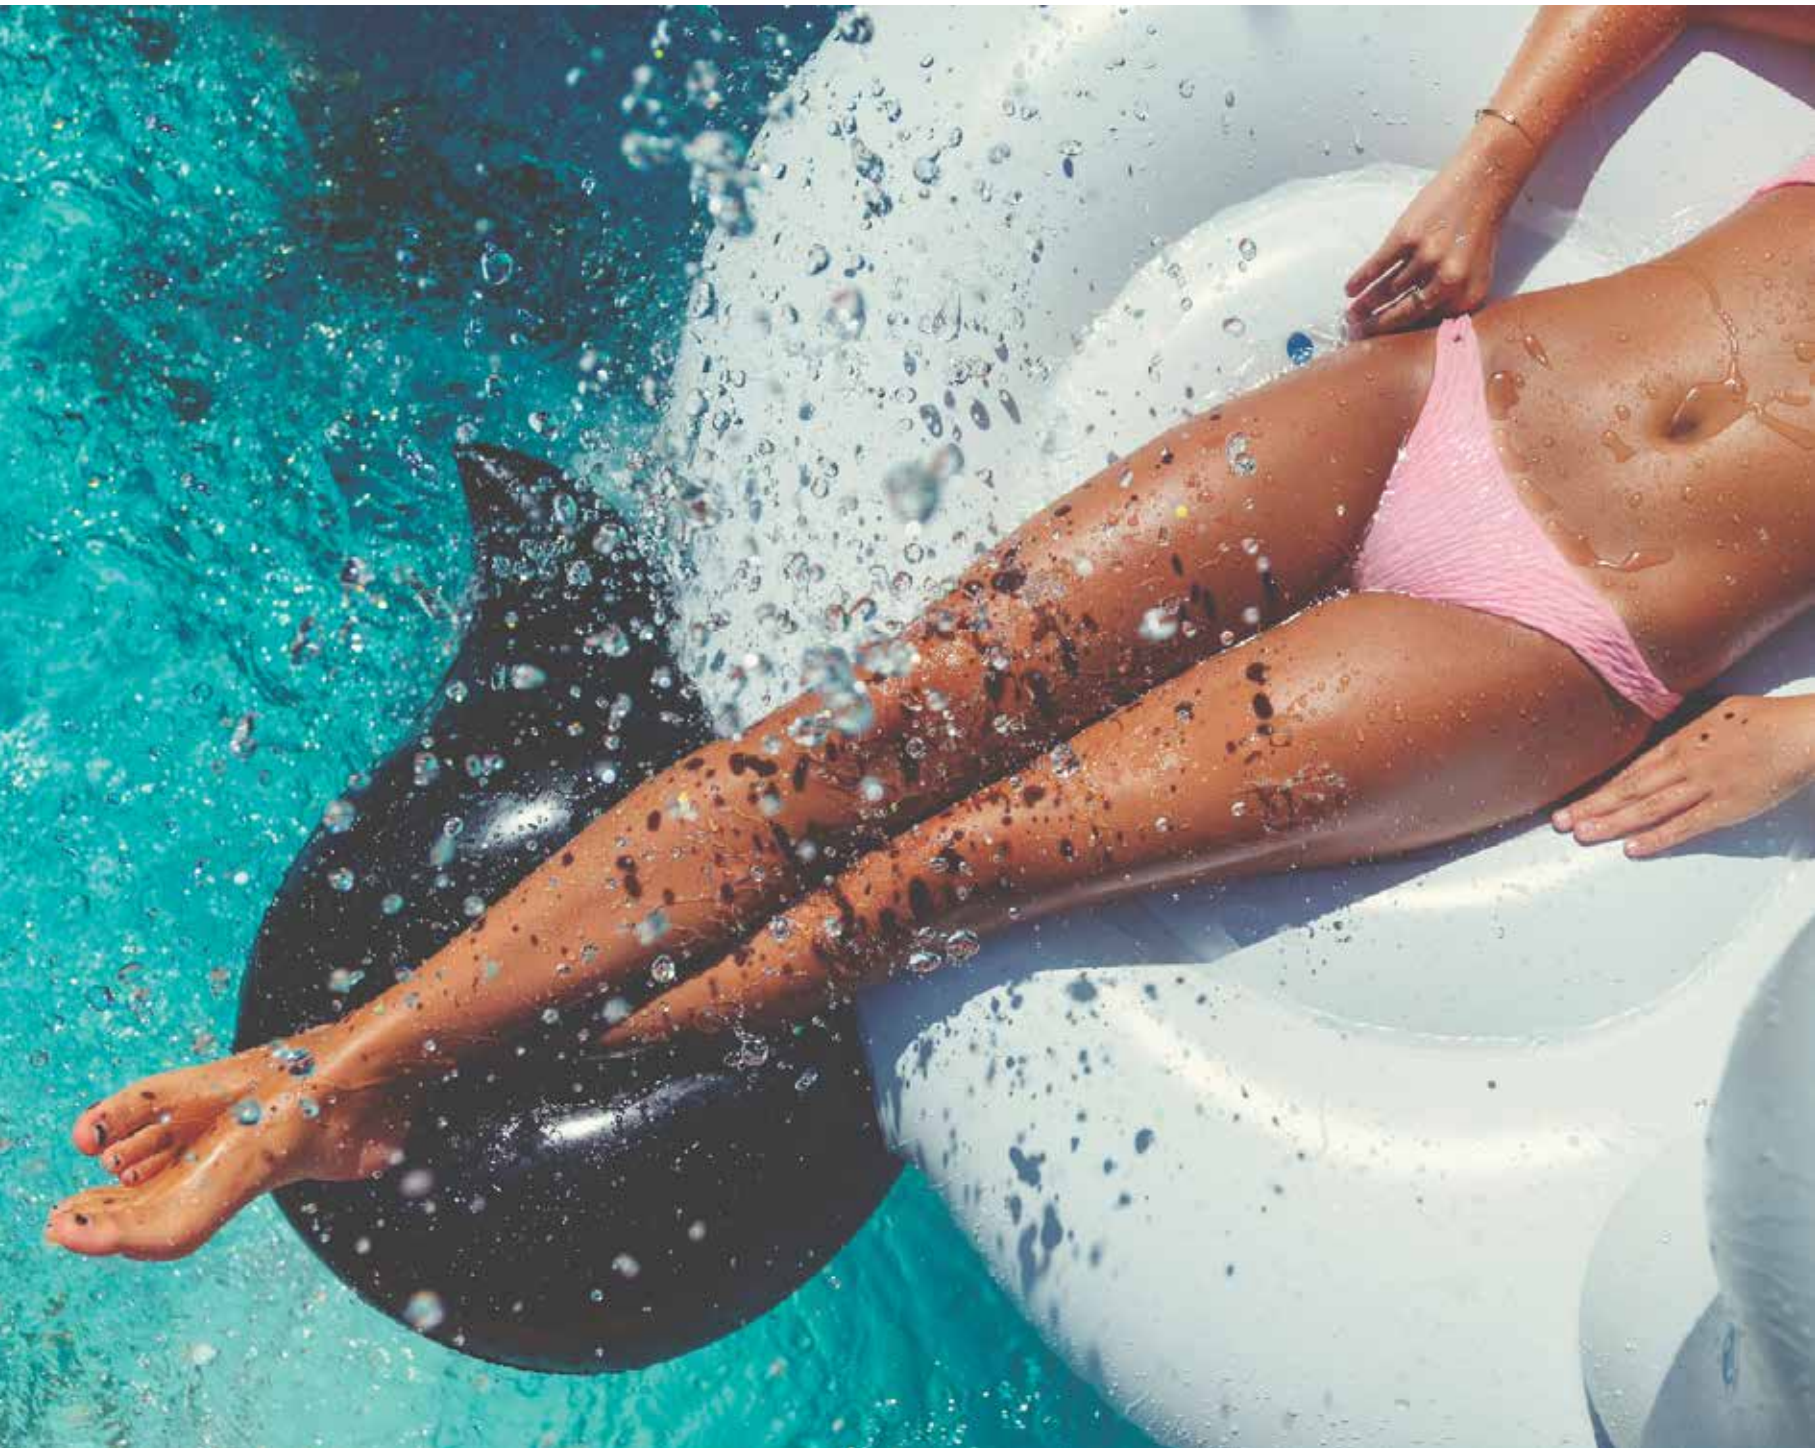

Bermuda's beaches are legendary, but beyond the pink sand you'll find a mid-Atlantic island packed with a rare combination of experiences and a huge variety of flora and fauna, from 40-ton humpback whales, to colourful lizards and rare birds. Set out for a day of uncharted fun on the water: sailing, jet-skiing, snorkelling or shipwreck-diving; explore ancient caves and subterranean lakes, uncover colonial heritage in the island's historic towns, celebrate with Gombey dancers, feast on one of the world's best fish sandwiches and wash it all down with a signature rum-based drink. Partake in the dynamic nightlife of the capital city, explore scenic hiking trails, or roam the narrow streets of St. George, the oldest British town in the New World. One of our favourite walks is the one from famous Horseshoe Bay to Elbow Beach – the entire length of the South Shore.

THE LOREN AT PINK BEACH

45 Suites & Villa Residences / 20 minutes by car from Bermuda Airport

Bermuda's first new hotel in over a decade, The Loren's eye-catchingly clean, contemporary design is a world away from the region's more traditional hotel landscape. Set on eight coastal acres, the sleek, understated aesthetic mixes European style and island-inspired touches, but remains unmistakably Bermudian in spirit. With just 45 suites and villas, this boutique beauty never feels crowded, and there are show-stopper views from every angle, thanks to natural light pouring through the oceanfront floor-to-ceiling windows, and the elevated position over the perfectly pink southern shores. And the outdoor space is no less dramatic: the expansive pool deck leading down to an untouched stretch of Bermuda's signature blush-sand beach.

88 Suites & Villas / 20 minutes by car from Punta Cana Airport

It's a bold move, fusing the effortless style of the French and Italian Rivas with the Caribbean's colourful effervescence, but Eden Roc pulls it off majestically. It's a diminutive Dominican village-style retreat set in the 30,000-acre Cap Cana enclave, where the interiors of the 34 candy-coloured, stand-alone pool suites, multi-bedroom pool villas and new two-bedroom beachfront suites feel reminiscent of a Philippe Starck masterpiece. Out and about a personal golf cart zips you between the gorgeous private Eden Roc Beach Club, Solaya Spa, KoKo Kids' Club and Jack Nicklaus signature golf course, the mighty geography, bustling marina and gastronomic delights.

TORTUGA BAY AT PUNTACANA RESORT & CLUB

30 Suites / 10 minutes by car from Punta Cana Airport

Sprawling grounds, virgin beaches, and design courtesy of one of the world's most beloved fashion designers, Oscar de la Renta. What's not to love? Like others in Punta Cana, this boutique beauty is ensconced within a larger resort, but the difference here is that most of the breezy, lemon-coloured suites are beachfront, and therefore a great choice for families. There's superstar service included as soon as you land, from the VIP airport meet and greet service, private transfers, personal villa concierge and golf cart; a beach club and restaurant exclusive to Tortuga Bay guests; and access to all of Puntacana Resort and Club's eateries, excursions and escapades.

SILVERSANDS

Teetering on the brink of Grand Anse Beach's hot-white sands, Silversands Grenada is raising the bar when it comes to the island's luxury resorts. The first major resort on Grande Anse in more than 25 years, it oozes a thoroughly modern, sexy South Beach style, but with a 'be and let be' – rather than 'see and be seen' – vibe. Its glorious beachfront position means infinite views across the bay; and while it may be Grenada's newest luxury resort, it already lays claim to one record-smashing accolade... its 100-metre swimming pool is the longest in the Caribbean.

*CALABASH LUXURY
BOUTIQUE HOTEL & SPA*

It's a funny thing, describing somewhere as a slice of English heaven set down in the Caribbean – after all, aren't we're trying to get away from it all when we travel? But that's exactly what owner Leo Garbutt and his family (a charismatic crew if ever there was one) have created at Calabash... a true Caribbean gem full of English heart, with a warm, sociable ambience and terrific á la carte dining. Like Grenada itself, Calabash is so welcoming you'll feel right at home from the moment you arrive, so much so that if you're anything like Leo, you'll never want to leave.

SPICE ISLAND BEACH RESORT

Staying at Spice Island Beach Resort, it's easy to see why owner Sir Royston Hopkin, a native of Grenada, chose this spot to create a place of unpretentious luxury. Close to the airport, yet well away from the flight path, it's set on one of the best beaches in the Caribbean, which, while technically not private, remains relatively undisturbed from beach pedlars, thanks to Sir Royston's hands-on family members and super-attentive staff. And the fully inclusive 'Spice-of-Life' experience means gourmet cuisine, fine wines, premium brand spirits, non-motorised watersports, golf green fees, cycling and tennis are all part of the programme.

It may have been converted from an old sugar mill but Cotton House is far from rustic: renovated by award-winning French interior designer Tristan Auer, it offers every modern in-room amenity we crave, a pool, spa and a historic windmill no less. Days focus on the island's powdery-white sands, the spotlight shifting by night to the Oliver Messel-designed Great Room.

HALF MOON

JAMAICA

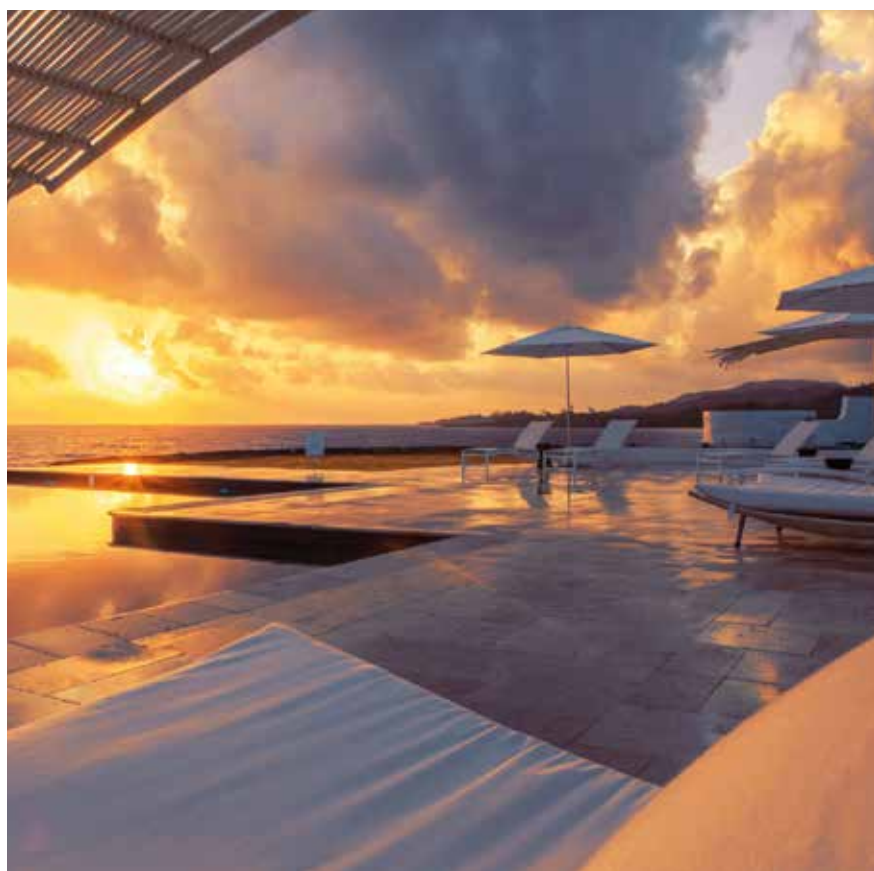

This is everything we think a resort should be: completely self-contained, centred around a two-mile crescent-shaped stretch of beach (one of the island's prettiest), with its own shopping village, an 18-hole, par 72 championship golf course and golf academy, equestrian centre... even a hospital. Yet in spite of its size and abundant amenities, Half Moon still offers a private hideaway where history, tradition and service mingle with an astonishing assortment of the very latest activities. These accomplishments are what really sets Half Moon apart from the rest, and just one reason guests come back to stay time and time again.

TRIDENT HOTEL

Bringing Jamaica back to the top of a lot of peoples' bucket lists, this refurbished remote beauty combines a hip, ultra-modern vibe with a sensuous retro-contemporary style, spectacular views, and of course, full-on five-star amenities. Set in Portland Parish, home to the Blue Mountains and dubbed 'the Jamaican Riviera', the Trident is hemmed in by a mecca of natural attractions so you're in a great spot to raft the Rio Grande; explore the iconic Blue Lagoon; the rainforest-shrouded Somerset and Reach waterfalls; the secluded, unspoilt beaches; and the marina, named after Errol Flynn, who, back in the 60s, was one of the area's most famous residents.

STRAWBERRY HILL RESORT

13 Studio Suites, Cottages & Villas / 1 hour by car from Kingston Airport

Perched high in the Blue Mountains and hidden away by tropical vegetation, Strawberry Hill has the ambience of secret island retreat. However, this former coffee plantation has a very illustrious past too: belonging to Chris Blackwell (founder of Island Records), Bob Marley was a regular and it's played home to musicians of every flavour for four decades. Nowadays, its colourful past is showcased by the amazing collection of memorabilia and photographs that line the walls, but we have a feeling it's the spectacular views of far-off Kingston and the Jamaican jungle and coastline below that will have your jaw dropping.

With a setting on what we think is Ocho Rios' finest beach – secluded, champagne-coloured sands and crystal-clear waters – it's easy to see why so many have fallen in love with Jamaica Inn over the past 60-plus years. Timelessly glamorous, yet completely unpretentious, it's a firm favourite with the jet-set, young romantics, honeymooners, beach-lovers and spa sybarites who adore the thoroughly modern amenities and pursuits.

Fifty-one years young and still a vision of beauty, Montpelier Plantation has a real knack for instantaneously melting away the stresses of everyday life, where the living is most-definitely easy, the hospitality highly addictive, and the cuisine exquisite (casual-island and fine-dining, tasting menus, and gourmet culinary and wine programmes). There's a lovely choice of fresh, airy and individual accommodations, from premier rooms through to two private two-bedroom villas, plus explorations galore for all. The downside? The beach is 15 minutes away by complimentary hotel shuttle, but once there, you get a natural slice of the Caribbean, and better still, it's exclusive to guests.

FOUR SEASONS RESORT NEVIS

Wonderful gardens, three infinity pools, a sybaritic spa, comprehensive range of activities, innovative kids' club and of course six divine dining venues make the Four Seasons ideal for couples and families. The 18-hole championship golf course is just stunning (especially the back nine holes) and even if you don't play we recommend taking a tour around it to spot the monkeys. This is undoubtedly one of the most desirable destinations in the world: four-mile-long Pinney's Beach is idyllic, especially if you hire one of the state-of-the-art beach cabanas, while spacious accommodations nestle in adorable cottages just steps from the shore.

SLEEK

When this hotel announced it would be joining LVMH's Cheval Blanc collection back in 2013, its über-loyal guest list wondered if the heart and soul of this, the grande dame of St Barths, would be lost forever. Happily though, Cheval Blanc is all about the prestigious tradition of French hospitality, so other than a touch-up to the décor, little else has changed. Blending West Indies style with more than just a little French charm, the hotel remains a testament to the finer things in life – epic culinary experiences, exclusive events and à la carte spa treatments. The bad news? It's still one of St Barths' hottest hotels, so do book early.

READY to rock AGAIN!

Following an extensive two-year full renovation and rebuilding, and still packing a big punch on the island for somewhere so beautifully boutique, Eden Rock – St Barth's very first hotel, famous for being the island's epicentre of style – is ready to rock once again. Yes it's utterly glamorous and super-expensive, but it's also a world away from being pretentious. In fact, you'll find a great camaraderie between guests, and a joie de vivre that's simply addictive – so much so it's advisable to book as early as you can. The management takes superb care of everyone, and the 34 uniquely decorated accommodations are each creatively accented with antiques, fine art, and little eccentricities, making it a bit of a quirky masterpiece.

PARK

Part of Christophe Harbour (the Caribbean's newest superyacht marina) at the island's southernmost tip, with accommodation we can only describe as ethereal, Park Hyatt has been setting St Kitts alight since its 2017 debut. The beachfront Banana Bay setting, overlooking neighbouring Nevis, is sublime; the design combines the island's rich historic roots with more than just a dash of Park Hyatt's signature intimate elegance; and the amenities, distinctive dining options and activities are more than ample. Easy, breezy island living at its best.

ST. KITTS

SUGAR BEACH, A VICEROY RESORT

96 Rooms, Villas, Beachfront Bungalows & Residences / 50 minutes by car from St Lucia Airport

Dripping in accolades, this full-on beachfront glamour-puss is stylish, glossy and whiter-than-white, and has undoubtedly snagged the most unbeatable spot on the island, set between the Pitons on the south-west coast's only stretch of sugary-soft sands. With equally engaging entertainment options for the eclectic mix of guests (friends, families, honeymooners, nature-lovers, spa sybarites, you name it), this plantation-style property is a particularly strong all-rounder: adults can slope off to explore the island or chill at the pool or beach (which, while down a slightly steep hill, is easily reached by buggy), while kids lap up all the fun at their age-appropriate clubs.

Lush tropical foliage surrounds the villas perched hillside, and with a private plunge pool they're perfect for honeymooners and seclusion-seekers. Luxury Sugar Mill Rooms put you closer to the action; shoreside serenity awaits within the beachfront bungalows; all accommodation comes with butler service; and most offer cribs, infant beds or pull-out sofa beds.

From the finest international cuisine at The Great Room, to delightfully casual tropical tastes at The Bayside Bar and Restaurant, the waterfront dining and chic bars are all home to a variety of palate-pleasing culinary choices. The Cane Bar is a must too, with its own rummelier and nightly menu of sushi and sashimi.

With a full PADI dive facility, scuba (or SNUBA for newbies) diving the National Marine Reserve is a must, as is guided hiking on Gros Piton, Schiller water-biking, and exhilarating horseback tours – a highlight for us being a ride along the beach and a dip in the ocean with your horse. But for sheer relaxation, hire a Kabe Privé garden cabana or indulge at the Rainforest Spa and you're good to go.

SANCTUARIES OF ST LUCIA

LADERA / CAP MAISON / EAST WINDS INN
BODYHOLIDAY / THE LANDINGS

Ladera. Romantic and breathtaking, with what some may describe as a vertigo-inducing hillside setting, Ladera is a nature-filled wonderland and the only hotel set in St Lucia's UNESCO World Heritage Site. An open-concept brings the outside well and truly in, swapping one wall for lofty, uncompromised views, and air-con for balmy breezes. It's a magical experience: the flora and fauna croons as you laze in your plunge pool, or drift off in your hardwood four-poster. Dasheene's eclectic, innovative menus use the freshest native ingredients, and the array of activities and outings make great use of the Soufrière locale, including the Caribbean's only drive-in volcano.

BodyHoliday. Give BodyHoliday your body for a week, and they'll give you back your mind. Yes, you may be inundated with an unparalleled choice of fitness, wellness and fun-filled programmes and activities designed to heighten health, enhance energy and promote peace of mind, but how much (or little) you do, eat, or imbibe in is entirely up to you. It's heaven for fitness-seeking singletons: safe, secure, friendly, with communal dining options and no single-room supplement. So whether you want to simply relax on tranquil St Lucian sands, or get your peak physique on, BodyHoliday has got you covered.

Cap Maison. Perched on an isolated bluff above the crashing surf of this dramatic coastline, this isn't the kind of place people just stumble upon... but when they do, it's hard to imagine staying anywhere else. Just 10 minutes from Rodney Bay, the setting, Spanish-Caribbean hacienda-style architecture, and refreshingly different approach to holiday-making make it great for a spot of romance, rejuvenation or adventure. A diminutive-but-serene beach is reached by descending 62 steps (the ascent back is the perfect excuse to head to the spa), and is home to 'The Naked Fisherman' (the informal beachside restaurant), non-motorised watersports and pure relaxation.

East Winds Inn. Come relax, unwind and forget about civilisation; instead, choose a good book, kick back on the lounge and watch the waves gently lap on the shore. Then, when you're ready, take your well-tanned limbs on a guided nature walk around the resort. East Winds is how Caribbean escapes used to be: with a house party atmosphere where lasting friendships are formed and plans are made to return and catch up next year. The fabulous bungalows exude old-world Caribbean charm, the food is worthy of a glitzy hotel thanks to its award-winning chef, and the entire team is just amazing.

The Landings Resort & Spa by Elegant Hotels. The island's first gated private yacht community, no expense was spared when developing this beachfront resort-cum-luxury yacht marina. The breezy, spacious and super-swanky one- to three-bedroom villa suites are set beachfront or overlooking the marina or ocean, all with four-poster beds, fully equipped gourmet kitchens, oversized terraces or patios, hydrotherapy bathtubs and butler service (ocean view categories only). As a residential community, it's better suited to anyone wanting a home-from-home experience, and though off-site nightlife is slightly limited, you've three pools, a 7000-square-foot spa, kids' club, non-motorised watersports, beach club, pool ambassador service, and an impressive choice of three dining venues, complete with children's menus, to enjoy.

COMO Parrot Cay

Accessible only by boat, and set on its own 1000-acre private island, COMO Parrot Cay is one of the Caribbean's most exclusive hideaways, with sublime turquoise waters, an Instagram-worthy pool and miles of blindingly white powdery-soft sand, which without exaggeration, have to be among the world's most beautiful. Sleek understated rooms open onto private verandas, where on-trend teakwood furnishings sit alongside white billowing muslin drapes. It's the epitome of contemporary chic, with a clever combination of simple décor, impeccable service and no noisy distractions – no cars, pollution, jet-ski rentals, themed restaurants or glass-bottom boat excursions – just lots of life's more simple pleasures.

AMANYARA

Bordering a 500-acre nature reserve and the pristine reefs of Northwest Point Marine Park, Amanyara is a resort that has the wow factor in spades: its fabulous location results in a feeling of blissful seclusion, cut-off from the daily grind, which is just how guests like it, and the design draws on everything nature has provided, though it's far from rustic. Cool eastern-style architecture tempts you in from the onset: its luscious reception pavilion opening out on to the central reflection pond, which in turn brushes against the library, boutique, restaurant and heart-stoppingly beautiful bar with incredible views out over the volcanic rock, infinity-edged pool.

INTO THE BLUE

It's one of Hollywood's favourite tropical hideaways: a verdant oasis of exquisite fountains, swaying palms, birds of paradise, and perfectly pink sunsets, wrapped in the personal-yet-unobtrusive touch that reigns supreme here. From the moment you sip your complimentary welcome shot of tequila and get your first glance at the dramatic shoreline; soft, sandy beaches; and untouched natural beauty, you'll find yourself switching straight into holiday mode. An evocative colonial Mexican ambience sweeps throughout, whether hanging out at the Agua Pool's tropical oasis, the adults-only outdoor lounging areas, or taking a half- or full-day cruise aboard the exquisite private yacht.

Lagoon Water Villa – Breakfast

7 nights from £2550 per person (low season)

7 nights from £3050 per person (high season)

Set on the island of Olhuveli, this is a seriously cool palm-fringed ‘no-news-no-shoes’ paradise that complements (rather than competes with) the area’s outstanding natural beauty, and does a brilliant job at coupling luxury with simplicity. Its location may mean an additional domestic flight from Malé before being whisked to the resort by speedboat, but with that comes more convenient arrival and departure times than when taking a seaplane. A Guest Experience Maker is on-hand to arrange absolutely anything you need, so speak to them on arrival and they’ll help make your stay as active – or as chilled – as you wish, with an almost endless menu of experiences.

STAY / EAT / LIVE

Stylishly designed villas are perched over the lagoon with sunken glass bathtubs and overwater hammocks, or beachside with private gardens surrounded by lush forest – and if you like the idea of an extra bedroom and a private pool, the two-bedroom lagoon beach villas with pool have a little extra pizzazz and are the perfect family hideaway.

Laamu’s three restaurants and two bars aren’t really the place to watch your waistline... but with Six Senses, at least you know the food is fresh, and where possible, organic and locally sourced. So try as many of the Ice & Chocolate Studio’s 40-plus flavours of ice-cream as you wish; sample European charcuterie and cheeses with Old and New World vintages at the Altitude wine cellar; or enjoy a private dinner set on the sandbank.

Close to one of the best-known surf breaks in the Maldives – Yin and Yang – the resort’s surf lessons provide the perfect opportunity to learn how to ‘hang 10’ (May to September). Snorkel the coral-rich house reef; dive with dolphins and mantas; explore Laamu Atoll on an island excursion; or indulge in pampering treatments at the spa.

BAROS Maldives

A real favourite of ours and hugely popular with our clients too, Baros is a pretty, petite paradise that's ideal for couples.

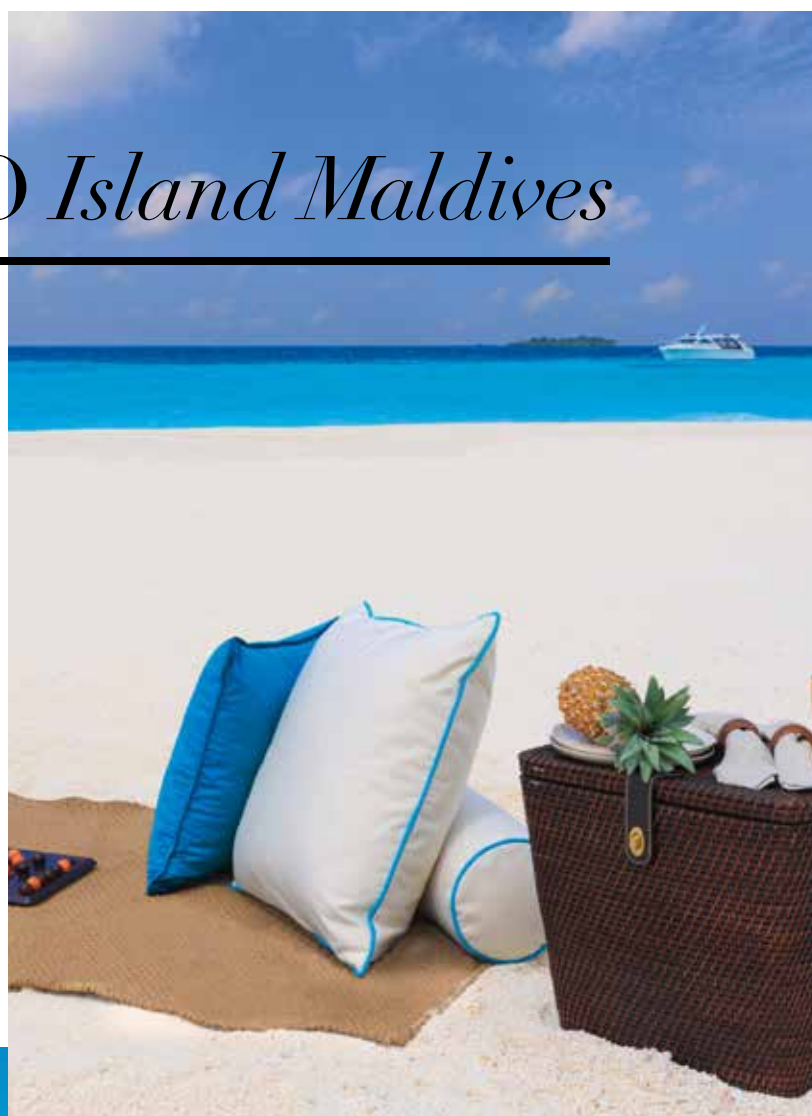

Full of true Maldivian charm, there's nothing too flashy – just a fantastic stretch of beach; three outstanding restaurants; an inviting overwater infinity pool; a rich, diverse underwater world (and a dive and marine centre to help you explore it); plus a non-exhaustive list of group and private excursions that make the most of the region's watery wonders. But what makes Baros so exquisite are its people: warm and welcoming, with a passion for making each stay so completely and utterly perfect.

MILAI DHOO Island Maldives

Bucking the trend of all-singing, all-dancing high-gloss glamour, Milaidhoo (set in the heart of Baa Atoll's UNESCO Biosphere Reserve) serves up a more classic, relaxed Maldivian vibe on a diminutive island of soft, white sands. Traditional architecture and design, spacious outdoor living and reinvented luxuries from the Maldivian past are fragments of its boutique barefoot concept. A heavenly haven for honeymooners and starry-eyed couples, the vibrant coral reef means it also counts dolphins, whale sharks and manta rays amongst its visitors, so it's little wonder the emphasis is on Milaidhoo Moments – a collection of exclusive activities – and some seriously good food.

SONEVA FUSHI

The Maldives' original Robinson Crusoe hideaway, this is a back-to-nature eco experience at its finest, and though very rustic, it certainly doesn't scrimp on comforts and conveniences. It's set in the UNESCO World Biosphere Reserve of Baa Atoll, so as well as Soneva's legendary 'no news, no shoes' barefoot luxury concept, you get some of the most inventive rustic-chic treehouse-style villas in the Indian Ocean (the largest accommodating up to 21 guests) with Mr/Mrs Friday butler service, gorgeous white-sand beaches that shelf gently into the ocean, rich marine-life and a brilliant house reef, and an abundance of innovative and unforgettable experiences.

SONEVA JANI

With rave reviews from everyone in the know, Soneva Jani is one of the Maldives’ most exciting newcomers in quite some time. Uniquely set completely over water along a meandering mile-long jetty, this gorgeously curvaceous aquatic playground’s location is completely sigh-inducing. The mesmerising, vibrant-blue lagoon is the Maldives’ largest (so big in fact, you could fit 7000 Olympic-sized pools within it); and you’ve access to not one, but five idyllic islands: the main island (Medhufaru) – fringed by miles of deserted beaches and blanketed with lush tropical greenery – offers a whole host of land- and water-based activities; and the others are just perfect for castaway escapades.

THE PERFECT PAIRING

FOUR SEASONS KUDA HURAA

A superb resort, Kuda Huraa caters equally well for couples seeking a romantic retreat, and families wanting a hideaway with great kids' facilities. Days are spent lounging by the gorgeous freshwater infinity pool and sipping cocktails against spectacular skies in the Sunset Lounge, while watersports enthusiasts will find stacks of activities on offer too. But it's the wealth of ingenious extras here that really up the luxury ante: we particularly love the shark snorkelling safaris, dolphin cruises, coral reef-scaping, surf and diving courses for anyone over eight years old, and the 'Secrets of the Sea' Night Spa ritual at The Island Spa sea sanctuary.

As well as Four Seasons’ usual range of top-notch facilities for adults and children alike, you’ll find vast land- and water-based accommodation along the shore, down dense jungle paths or perched over water, and some serious R&R in the most idyllic of locations. And unlike some Maldivian resorts, there’s plenty of action when the sun goes down too.

MALDIVES

The Peak of chic

Baglioni Resort Maldives | Dreamily resplendent on the island of Maagau, this exclusive resort is awash with natural tropical beauty, velvety-white sands and some of the world's best diving sites. Sample Baglioni Hotels' unique Italian hospitality in the heart of the Indian Ocean, where 96 villas – gazing out over a gorgeous garden, the beach or crystal-clear waters – are enriched by prestigious gastronomic offerings at four gourmet eateries (from aperitifs and craft cocktails to traditional Japanese dishes and authentic Italian); non-motorised watersports, sailing and PADI diving experiences; luxury treatments at the Baglioni Spa; and – our personal highlight – the unique evening cruise beneath clear Maldivian night skies and millions of glittering stars.

COMO Cocoa Island | This low-key slice of tropical heaven is a shining example of the Maldives' picture-perfect island hideaways, and though tiny in comparison to its more ostentatious neighbours, it's pretty hard to beat. Firstly the location, a 40-minute speedboat ride from Malé, maximises your beach time; the dhoni-inspired overwater suites – all wooden rustic charm on the outside and Hamptons' beach-house-chic on the inside – come with guaranteed privacy, tons of space and foot-in-the-sea sun-decks; the COMO Shambhala Retreat is divine; and the flexible, all-day dining options at Ufaa always get rave reviews – as do the watery wonders available at the expertly equipped Marine Sports Centre. COMO Maalifushi | While sister property COMO Cocoa Island takes care of the romance, COMO Maalifushi is the ultimate away-from-it-all family playground where, as well as their kids' programme and 'tweens' lounge, there are brilliant family adventures. It's just as compelling for couples and companions too: as the first private island resort on Thaa Atoll, the diving, snorkelling, and surfing are exceptional, as is the spa, the COMO Shambhala Retreat. The luxurious-yet-uncomplicated accommodations are equally split over water and within the island's interior (those on the beach being particularly family friendly); and three restaurants deliver mouth-watering temptations for every palate, from sushi and Teppenyaki, to wood-fired pizza and seafood.

A 35-minute domestic flight from Malé Airport & 15 minutes by speedboat

LUX* island life now has even more va-va-voom since its chic, beach-house style revamp in 2016. Larger than most other resorts, its size means that on top of the usual resort activities you can uncover all kinds of additional hidden treasures on a long stroll or bike ride. It also means there's enough space to provide a private sanctuary for adults, and dedicated clubs for tots and teens. Of course the sugar-soft sands are where most of the magic happens, but don't miss any of the stunning dining venues, a visit to the LUX* Me Spa or the fantastic whale shark experience.

A PLACE BEYOND TIME

With its modern, bohemian spirit, this is a place unlike any other; where nothing is set in stone, and anything is possible. An immensely private resort of one- to three-bedroom beach and ocean houses (each a personal sanctum with a separate living room, private freshwater pool, and bespoke butler service), guests are liberated from time itself, and made to feel completely at home. There's plenty of space for children to roam free, and meet other 'young wanderers' on specially designed kids' adventures. Dining is unscripted, with no opening or closing times, breakfast hours or dress codes. Adventure knows no bounds. And every experience is set to the beat of no-one's drum but your own.

THE

We can't think of anywhere better to spend some much-needed, serene down-time than The Oberoi Mauritius. Set on a secluded headland on the north-west coast, it's a truly romantic retreat where children are welcome, but honeymooners or those looking for a quiet escape will also be in absolute heaven. And the blissful tranquillity all starts at check-in – with a deliciously fruity welcome cocktail, a lovely treat while watching the Oberoi ducks waddle through the grounds. All in all, it's a fairytale resort that beautifully combines absolute privacy with relaxed, understated luxury, all wrapped up in abundant natural beauty.

STAY

Smartly arranged for maximum privacy, all accommodation has a four-poster bed (adding to the romance of it all) and a private terrace. Particularly impressive is the Royal Villa with its generous tropical garden, large private pool and thatched dining pavilion; but it's the sumptuous luxury villas with private pool and their spectacular sea views that really do it for us.

EAT

The three fantastic alfresco restaurants feature exceptional cuisine and Indian Ocean views, but with romance the order of the day, don't expect a lively vibe after 10.30pm. In fact, you may prefer private dining – sampling Creole, Asian or international dishes in your private dining pavilion; or feasting on the freshest seafood with your toes in the sand.

LIVE

It goes without saying we all love some beach time, but after soaking up the sun, or trying the wind-surfing, water-skiing, diving and sailing (charges apply) on public Turtle Bay (a natural marine park with vibrant coral reef), it's worth taking some time out to explore the spa's African-inspired rejuvenating and well-being treatments and "Touching Senses" programmes of sculpture classes, wine-tasting, painting and star-gazing.

It's a beach- and pool-lover's dream so you may be quite happy to simply take full advantage of both; but you're also perfectly located to explore the city. The Guerlain Spa provides holistic treatments with an adjacent poolside escape just for adults, and Chef Yannick Alléno creates Michelin-starred culinary wizardry in the three stylish restaurants.

All accommodation is set within the main tri-level Manor House or the six low-rise mansions (apart from the four two-bedroom private beach villas which are set right on The Palm's idyllic shores). Some come with private pools, and even the premiere rooms here are as spacious as larger suites found in many other five-star resorts.

When it comes to the restaurants, it's hard to pick a favourite. Asian/Middle Eastern ZEST is a vision of laid-back loveliness; the über-fashionable overwater hangout of 101 Dining Lounge & Marina with its cocktails, light tapas, Mediterranean-style dishes and DJ beats most evenings is just our style; but STAY is the one to beat, with simple, great tasting food, unique sharing experiences, and a Pastry Library with every delectable dessert imaginable.

Our perfect day here? A workout on one of the Fitness Centre's Kinesis™ training stations, and some time lounging pool- or beach-side and trying out the watersports. Then, after a long lazy lunch and siesta, we'd sample the delights of the Guerlain Spa, and end with a final flourish at the Pedi:Mani:Cure Studio and Alexandre Zouari's Hair Studio.

Pure luxury, this tranquil haven of rest and relaxation commands a regal presence along the beachfront, its endless features and family-friendly ethos making this a superb all-round option.

THE PALACE AT ONE&ONLY ROYAL MIRAGE

One of the trio of hotels that make up the 65-acre resort complex of One&Only Royal Mirage, The Palace is an Arabian fantasy of a retreat.

Built in the architectural style of an ancient fort, the resort comfortably sits in scented gardens criss-crossed by streams and punctuated by courtyards and waterfalls, and as well as a timeless splendour, you'll find all accommodation sporting fabulous Gulf views thanks to its sterling beachfront position.

Contemporary in style, all rooms and suites are beautifully decked-out in natural tones and top-notch furnishings, with slashes of lush brocades, silks and velvets adding hints of bright colour. Bathrooms are opulent, marble-heavy affairs, perfect for wallowing in, while balconies or terraces come as standard.

One of Dubai's (if not the world's) most fantastical resorts, inspired by tales of the lost continent of Atlantis, this gargantuan property is testament to the emirate's 'bigger is better' mantra, with families and fun-seekers flocking here in their droves (so the traffic may be heavy at busier times). But once you get here, there are wow factors at every turn, where one moment you could find yourself sampling the epic adventures of Aquaventure Waterpark or The Lost Chambers Aquarium; the next indulging in full-on pampering at the ShuiQi Spa, or gourmet delights at the wealth of celebrity dining venues.

JUMEIRAH AL NASEEM

Sitting proudly between Jumeirah Mina A'Salam and Burj Al Arab Jumeirah, this spectacular addition to Madinat Jumeirah offers spacious, thoroughly modern open-plan rooms (the smallest easily accommodating a family of four); suites (all with access to an executive lounge and private beach club); five pools (one adults only); a turtle lagoon; and 10 restaurants.

BURJ AL ARAB

JUMEIRAH

Ever had amazing service that starts with your own Rolls Royce Phantom transfer? Well a fleet of them awaits when you stay at Burj Al Arab Jumeirah, a visual and experiential extravaganza. Its sail-shaped tower dominates the Jumeirah skyline, but what really sets it apart is the outstanding personalised service. The opulent suites all come with cutting-edge amenities and indulgent personal butler service; frequent guests will already know the joys of the Talise Spa and private beach; but now there's even more to love with the recent addition of the Burj Al Arab Terrace, a private outdoor leisure space that stretches 100 metres out to sea.

FAR FROM THE EVERYDAY

1. CAESARS PALACE BLUEWATERS DUBAI

194 Rooms, Suites & Residence Suites / 30 minutes by car from Dubai Airport

Yes, Vegas' most iconic hotspot has splashed down in Dubai! Located on man-made Bluewaters Island, Caesars Palace Bluewaters Dubai brings a touch of ancient Rome and a never-seen-before fun approach of luxury to the UAE... A sleeker, non-gaming take on its Vegas outpost, with a jam-packed roster of entertainment that's set to be just as starry as the original.

All 194 rooms, suites and one- to four-bedroom residence suites ooze sophistication, thanks to Modern-American interior designer Jonathan Adler. Award-winning, ancient Roman traditions of wellness come courtesy of Qua Spa. World-class dining includes decadent cuisine at Gordon Ramsay's second Hell's Kitchen location. And though Caesars Palace itself is slightly more adult-oriented, your 3-12 year-old 'Gladiators' and 'Centurions' can head to the Empire Kids' Club, teens to 'Roam' (both at Caesars Resort, the more sizeable, family-focused sibling), while you soak up uninterrupted R&R at private beach club, Cove Beach, or sophisticated over-21's sun spot, Venus Pool Lounge.

FOUR SEASONS RESORT DUBAI AT JUMEIRAH BEACH

237 Rooms & Suites / 25 minutes by car from Dubai Airport

Just when we thought Dubai had all the beachfront glamour it could handle, along came the Four Seasons, an intimate 14-acre, six-storey coastal haven in the heart of ‘the Beverly Hills of the Middle East’. While there’s very little within walking distance, it’s the closest beach resort to both the Burj Khalifa and Downtown Dubai, resulting in a great base from which to explore every side of the emirate. And with 10 epic dining experiences, a stylish rooftop lounge, one of the city’s most lavish spas, and an abundance of fun activities, there’s no reason to leave if you just want some time out.

The RITZ- CARLTON DUBAI

Perched on the exclusive beachfront island at the epicentre of Jumeirah Beach and The Walk – Dubai’s trendiest beachfront luxury shopping and dining avenue – this Mediterranean-style resort is an intimate retreat for anyone wanting relaxation away from the hustle and bustle of everyday life. While the resort takes its inspiration from the Med, the hospitality is unmistakably Arabian, with plush architecture ranging from grand marble columns to homely wooden terraces. Like the refined interiors, the exotic gardens are a feast for the eyes, and Amaseena’s seasonal belly-dancing show is just one of many hotel gems that brings local authenticity straight to your door.

Just six elegant floors incorporate a collection of tasteful lounges and luxury rooms and suites.

Overlooking the pool and garden are the deluxe rooms, but it’s the much sought-after Club Level rooms that caught our eye, with their enhanced levels of pampering, superb balconies with gorgeous sea views, and access to the Club Lounge with its five daily food and beverage services (including free premium alcohol from 12pm to 10pm).

EAT

A surfeit of gourmet restaurants offers everything from Arabic to Italian dishes, but we particularly recommend the modern Italian fare at Splendido, the traditional cooking at the tented Bedouin village of Amaseena (home to the afore-mentioned belly-dancing show), and La Baie’s classic sushi and ‘caught that day’ seafood. Oh, and afternoon tea is an absolute must!

LIVE

Recreational facilities are as impressive as everything else here, with 300 metres of white sand on Jumeirah Beach, six pools with waterfalls and a swim-up bar, the world-class Ritz-Carlton Spa, tennis, a gym, and for golfers, the Emirates Golf Course lies just 20 minutes’ drive away.

VILLAS BY BVLGARI

It's almost unbelievable to imagine that the Bvlgari Resort Dubai experience could get any better. But lo and behold, their 20 stand-alone Bvlgari Villas have upped the ante even further. Surrounded by lush vegetation, and facing the Dubai skyline or beach (the latter with private beach access to boot), these über-private one- to three-bedroom properties come complete with individual car parking hidden tastefully inside tinder gazebos, their own cabana-lined swimming pool, and an incredible view from the inside out.

BVLGARI

RESORT DUBAI

At the heart of the eye-wateringly fancy 150,000-square-metre Bvlgari Marina and Yacht Club complex (the first development of its kind in scale and magnitude) set on the exclusive, titanic seahorse-shaped Jumeira Bay Island (accessible from Jumeirah Beach Road via a new 300-metre bridge), this, the world's fifth Bvlgari hotel, designed entirely by Italian architectural firm Antonio Citterio Patricia Viel, is framed by astonishing Dubai skyline and infinite ocean views, and lush, landscaped gardens. Gilded, glamorous, with a charming Mediterranean village feel, and home to the emirate's most private beach, it's the perfect escape for those wanting the very finest things in life.

Wining and dining concepts include the signature, Italian three Michelin-star Il Ristorante, the more casual Il Café, Bvlgari's gourmet Il Cioccolato chocolate boutique, a super-exclusive sushi bar (for just eight guests), La Spiaggia pool and beach bar, plus a host of independent eateries around the marina.

*D*OWNTOWN UBAI

It may not be the obvious choice when it comes to ‘doing Dubai’ (as many shy away from a city where the temperatures raise the roof come summer), but head into the heart of Dubai and find a whole other world of wonders away from the beach just perfect for beating the heat. In fact as well as key bragging rights like The Dubai Mall (the world’s largest, and its most-visited shopping and leisure site), the Burj Khalifa (the world’s tallest building) and the JW Marriott Marquis (the world’s tallest hotel), Downtown Dubai (or as the locals call it, ‘The Centre of Now’) is actually a fantastic option for soaking up the sun poolside at one of the wow-worthy hotels here and embracing the indoor chill with Downtown’s rolodex of rousing recreation: ideal whether you’re seeking a short urban adventure, a multi-generational jaunt or anything in between.

HIGHLIGHTS

The Dubai Mall Complex

Shop 'til you drop at the home of the shopping festival, The Dubai Mall, with over 1200 retail outlets from Armani to Zara; super-chic Fashion Avenue; the elegantly designed Souk; and The Village with its rich collection of tree-lined walkways, cafés and restaurants. It's also home to the Dubai Aquarium where you can hop on a glass-bottom boat tour, or enjoy a mermaid make-over. Kids will love the innovative KidZania® 'edutainment' complex – where fighting fires, performing on stage, hairdressing and piloting planes is all in a day's work; and we can't think of anywhere better to cool off than the sensational Olympic-size Dubai Ice Rink.

Burj Khalifa & Dubai Fountains

Towering into the clouds, Burj Khalifa clocks in at almost 2725 feet. Pre-book your slot with our Concierge Team, avoid the queues, and be whisked by the planet's fastest elevator up to the observation deck, 'At the Top' on the 124th floor, for 360° birds'-eye views of this glittering metropolis. Linger longer with cocktails, mocktails or a meal in the clouds at At.Mosphere on level 122, then take in Dubai Fountain's spectacularly choreographed dance of water and light on the lake.

Dubai Opera

Transforming Dubai's performing arts scene overnight, the glittering, futuristic, dhow-shaped Dubai Opera floats above the lake next to The Dubai Mall and draws inspiration from the planet's most iconic global performing arts venues like the Sydney Opera House and New York's Lincoln Centre. Perfect for a red-carpet night out, it's already played host to Plácido Domingo, and some of the finest shows from Broadway, the West End and more – including Les Misérables, Nutcracker on Ice, Cats, West Side Story, the BBC Proms and White Nights.

Dubai Trolley

Explore the best of Downtown Dubai without breaking a sweat (or paying a penny!), and hop onto the complimentary Dubai Trolley – a bright red double-decker trolley-tram offering easy access to The Dubai Mall, Souk Al Bahar and three of the area's landmark hotels (due to span the entire breadth of Downtown Dubai in the not-too-distant future).

BEACH RESORT

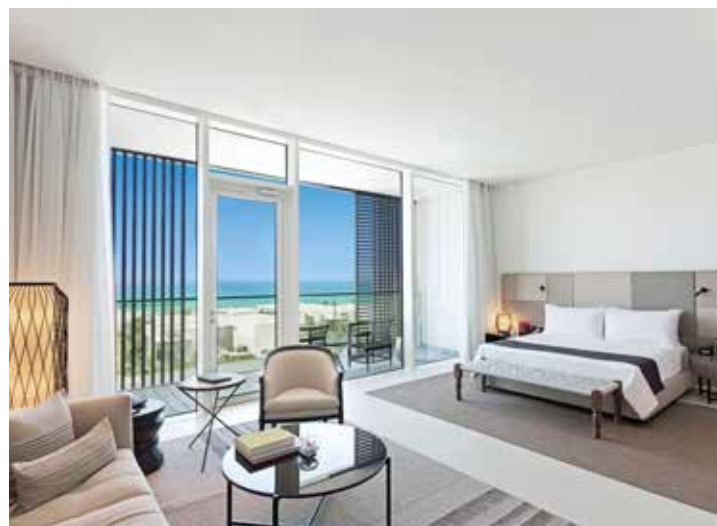

AL ZORAH

89 Rooms, Suites & Villas / 25 minutes by car from Dubai Airport

Check into Ajman's latest beachfront retreat and you get a modernist, five-star destination fused with Oberoi's legendary hospitality and sense of masterfully crafted luxury. A hidden escape within the one-million-square-metre oasis of Ajman's Al Zorah project (also home to an 18-hole golf course designed by Jack Nicklaus, a marina and almost 60 species of birds), it's a far cry from all the bustle of Dubai without really travelling too far (just 25 minutes away in fact). And it's not just easily accessible, it's in stark contrast to the rest of the region with its protected mangroves; long, white-sand beaches; and azure lagoons.

Spacious, elegant, modern and drenched in natural light, all accommodation comes with butler service and uninterrupted ocean, mangrove or garden views. All rooms have a private balcony; suites have a wider terrace; and the one- to three-bedroom villas boast temperature-controlled private pools, a pair of loungers and daybeds, outdoor dining spaces, and free airport transfers (Kohinoor Suites only).

There are only two restaurants here (plus a poolside menu for lighter bites), but thanks to all-day dining venue Vinesse with its gourmet theatre show kitchens,

Chef's Table experience and sushi bar, and the beachside seafood restaurant Aquario (complete with Fish Sommelier to help you choose from the live seafood bar) that's really all you need.

With such an incredible biodiversity, this luxury eco resort has all sorts of incredible activities which make the most of the exceptional surroundings. So as well as the lovely long stretch of beach, Olympic-sized pool, yoga and meditation room, Oberoi Spa, and adventurous watersports at the beach and mangrove, walkers, joggers and cyclists can explore the mangroves on a specially built walkway, or try a spot of bird-watching.

ZAYA NURAI ISLAND

A photograph of a woman with blonde hair, seen from behind, standing on a sandy beach. She is wearing a dark bikini top. The background is a tropical beach scene with palm trees and the ocean under a bright sky. The image is used as a background for the title text.

Sun? Check. Sand? Check. Pristine, crystal-clear waters? Check. Less than 15 minutes off Saadiyat Island's coastline, Zaya Nurai is a little slice of Maldivian magic in Abu Dhabi: stunning scenery, cracking accommodation and faultless food on a secluded, picture-perfect island only accessible by boat, seaplane, or helicopter. Exploring the quirkiest aspects of this boutique resort is all part of the fun: from the larger-than-life sculpture of rose-tinted glasses on the beach and adult-sized inflatables in the pool, to secluded nooks where you'll find charming birdcage-style daybeds... it all adds up to our new favourite spot to unwind in the UAE.

EMIRATES PALACE

Less a hotel, this is more a city of delights in its own right; a city where the architects apparently had carte blanche to create a show-stopper of a resort with nothing left unthought of.

This enchanting landmark holds iconic, monument status in Abu Dhabi, and offers an extraordinary, unforgettable experience to match it. Water-babies will adore the private, white-sandy beach, free-form relaxation pool and adventure pool with its lazy river; or the vast selection of watersports.

Accommodation-wise there's everything from luxury rooms through to three-bedroom Palace Suites – the latter being nothing short of mini-palaces with lavish décor, quadruple height ceilings, Swarovski chandeliers and magnificent dining rooms. Oh, and a 24-hour butler, naturally.

Elsewhere, 15 restaurants and bars provide everything your tastebuds could ever wish for, extreme sports take centre stage at the 'Energy Zone', serenity is on tap at the Anantara Spa and with high-end boutiques galore, you don't even need to leave the resort should you feel the urge to splurge.

EAT

The dining experiences are just that: lunch, afternoon nibbles, and 32 ice-cream and sorbet flavours at the Summer House; five- or seven-course fine-dining at the mountain-top Sense on the Edge (Wednesdays to Sundays); Arabic delights at Spice Market; or authentic Bedouin dining at Shua Shack (try the melt-in-your-mouth, slow-cooked lamb, baked in the ground for 24 hours).

LIVE

Everything from the blissed-out to the heart-pumping: beachcombing or movie nights on the secluded sandy beaches, swimming in the calm Arabian Gulf or the two swimming pools, sunset cruises, exotic and deeply indulgent spa treatments, dedicated well-being breaks and yogic programmes, cooking classes, watersports and underwater adventure, plus rock-climbing, hiking and biking.

Bringing a little more authenticity to Oman's luxury resorts, and set high in the Al Hajar Mountain Range, 2200 metres above sea level, Alila Jabal Akhdar is an eco-friendly haven that blends seamlessly into its surroundings. A true escape from urban life, it's the perfect base from which to get under the skin of the region's magnificent, untouched landscapes, all in absolute comfort and indigenous style. Watching the mountains change colour from day to night is unlikely to lose its attraction throughout your stay, and with temperatures generally around 20 degrees cooler than in Muscat, it makes for a great summer retreat too.

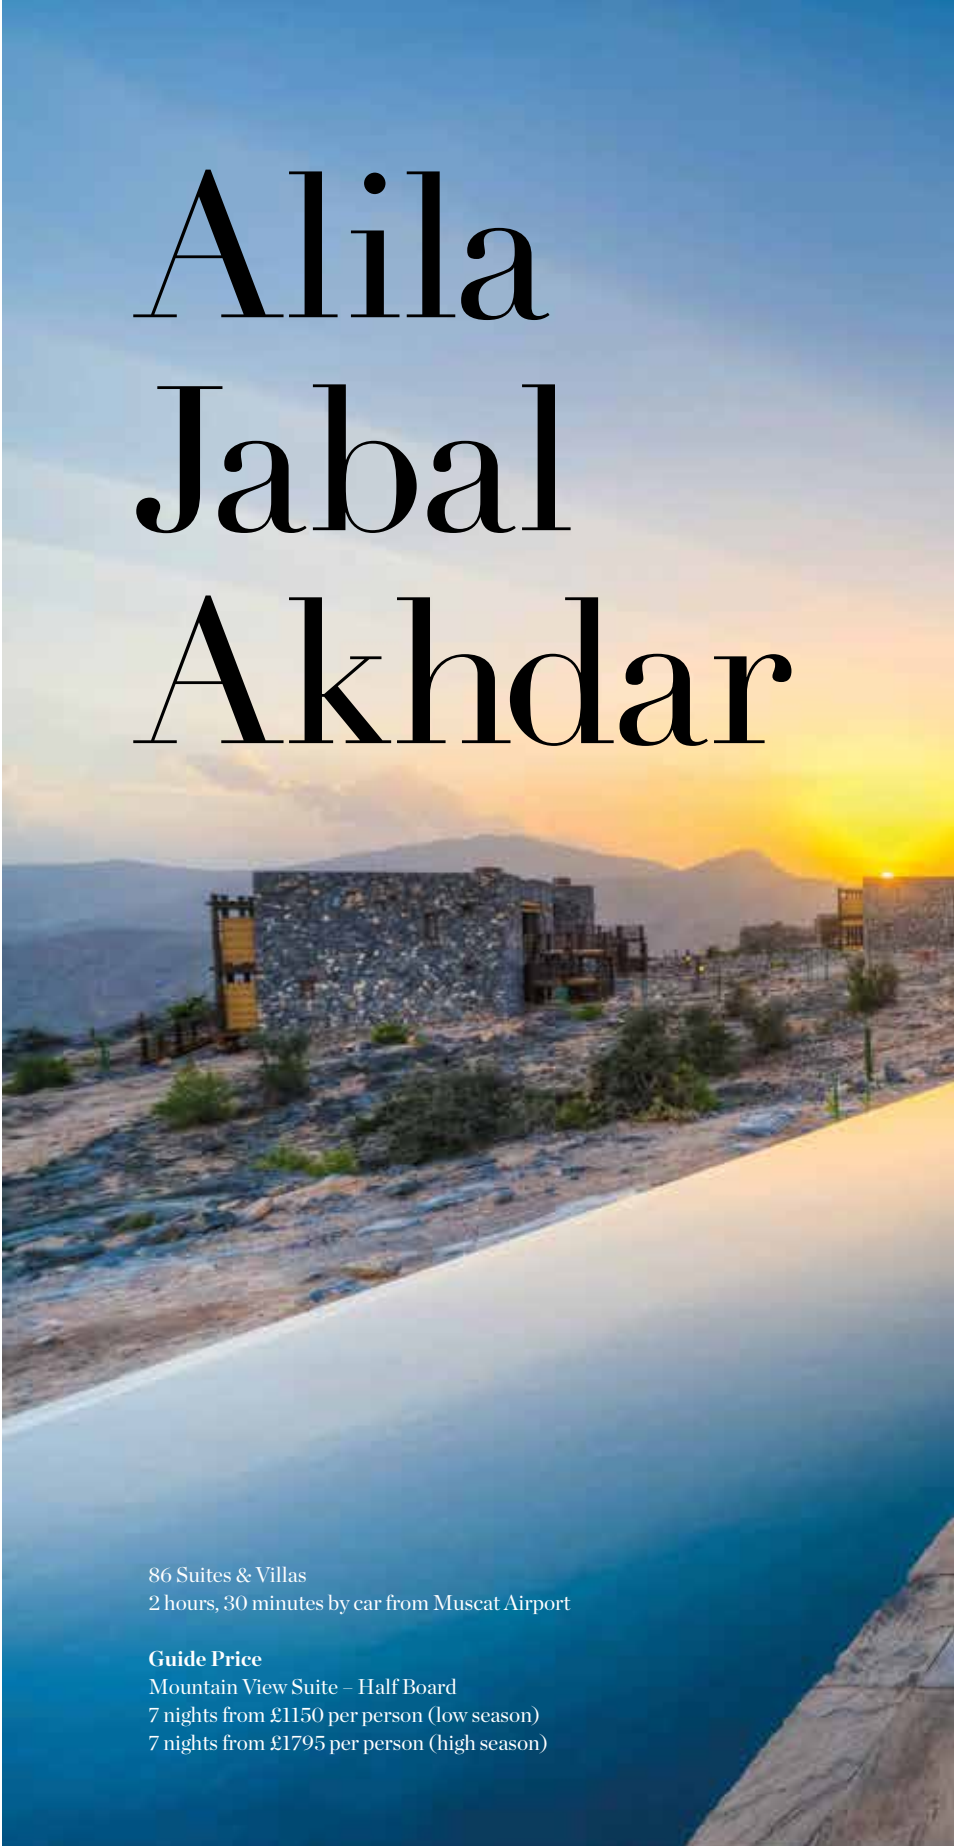

STAY / EAT / LIVE

Beautifully appointed contemporary suites and villas are laced with an authentic Omani flavour using natural materials, local artwork and artefacts. Generously dotted around the clifftop to maximise privacy, Ridge View Suites have the best views, but opt for a Jabal Terrace Suite and you get a gorgeous terrace, complete with canopied daybed, that seemingly floats above the gorge.

Two restaurants serve up an international menu inspired by the golden age of Arabic cuisine and the trade routes that stretched from the Middle East to the Med. And this area is known locally as the fruit bowl of Oman, so you get fresh farm produce, delivered daily, transformed by the chef into healthy, deliciously hearty seasonal choices.

As well as two pools (one indoor, one clifftop) and the terrific Alila Spa, the leisure concierge can co-ordinate bespoke explorations that combine your own interests with Oman's unique characteristics: all sorts of pursuits for sporty types, adrenaline junkies, foodies, culture vultures, spa sybarites and art lovers (a particular favourite though is a visit to the slopes of the Saiq Plateau: especially Al Aqr – famous for its rose gardens – and the forgotten village of Wadi Bani Habib).

A rare jewel in the rocky contours of the Saiq Plateau on Oman's fabled Green Mountain, this unique retreat perches 2000 metres above sea level on the curving rim of a canyon that plummets down into the Hajar mountain range. Elevated in both location and authentic luxury, Anantara Al Jabal Al Akhdar Resort is the highest five-star resort in the Middle East and amongst the highest in the world, with a village-style feel that gives the entire place a strong sense of belonging – so expect captivating canyon views, majestic sunsets, and a real sense of adventure.

ANANTARA

Al Jabal Al Akhdar Resort

STAY / EAT / LIVE

Most accommodation is perfectly positioned to take full advantage of the irrepressible canyon views. And while there's no shortage of space in deluxe and premier rooms, if you really want to enjoy sultan-like status, opt for a cliff-top villa, complete with infinity pool, outside deck, lavish bathroom and villa host.

Enjoy a mesmerising spread of world flavours and traditional tastes from across the region: poolside Italian lunches; Arabic specialties in a fort tower; exotic beverages paired with tapas in the Moroccan lounge; shisha and star-gazing; or exquisite private dining on the canyon platform, named after Princess Diana.

The mild climate here is ideal for explorers – perfect when the rest of Oman is blisteringly hot. Admire the vast canyon from the infinity pool, heat up your yoga in the hammam, or cook Omani specialties with an expert local chef. The mountainous terrain allows for all sorts of unique experiences too: biking, driving tours, gradual and intermediate climbing, cultural walks and hikes, and star-gazing – and that's just for starters!

STATE OF BLISS

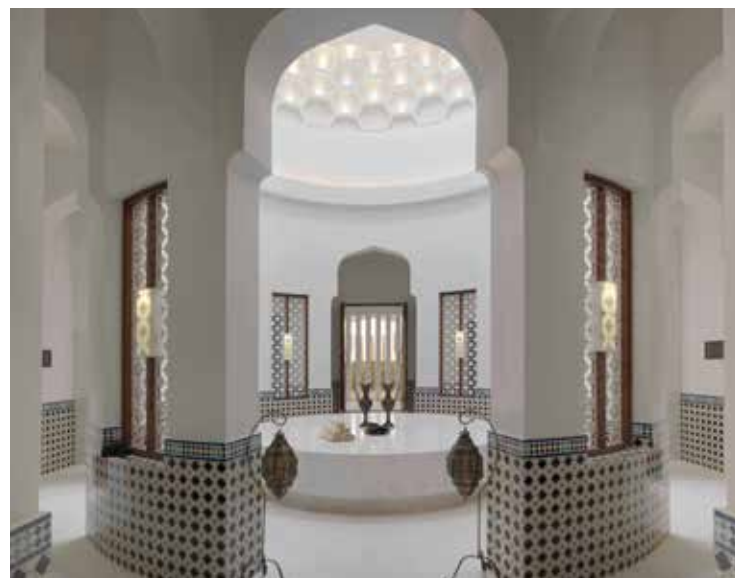

Al Bustan Palace, A Ritz-Carlton Hotel

Palatial, magnificent and authentic, sandwiched between the Hajar Mountains and Sea of Oman, this jewel of the Sultanate is breathtaking from start to finish. Traditional luxury is a given (albeit with an extravagant Arabian twist); the arrival spectacular: we love the “coffee man” who upholds the Omani custom of welcoming guests with a cup of ‘joe’. Three restaurants are all excellent (though slightly expensive), and there’s pretty much everything you need for an all-encompassing getaway: 200 acres of gardens; Oman’s longest, utterly private beach; five pools; watersports and diving; a jogging trail; seasonal tennis village; divine Six Senses Spa; plus private boat charters and sightseeing.

Anantara Al Baleed Resort Salalah

Nestled between a beach and freshwater lagoon, this is the region’s first luxury villa resort of its kind, where décor within the plush, comfortable interiors is inspired by Oman’s distinctive architecture and artistry, Dhofar’s rich heritage, and the area’s iconic coastal fortresses (think intricately carved wooden doors, Islamic-style arches, vibrant textiles and lanterns galore). Outside, palm-fringed walkways tempt you through impeccably manicured tropical gardens and past lush black-stone water features to decompress at the Anantara Spa, the 44-metre beachfront infinity pool, the watersports centre, or on the exquisite private beach; with a cooking or mixology class; or trying something a little sportier.

STYLE

ICON

Vibrant, sophisticated and charming to within an inch of its white-washed loveliness, The Chedi is elegance incarnate. In fact, we'd go so far as to say that when it comes to contemporary accommodation, there's probably nowhere better to stay whilst in Muscat – as hotels go, this is pretty dazzling stuff. The whole place oozes character, yet remains well at ease with its magnificent backdrop of deserts, mountains and stunning Boushar beachfront, and every care has been taken not to go into OTT design territory, so you get a stylish boutique-hotel vibe, on a brilliant, but not-so-boutique scale.

Room-wise it's worth noting that if a balcony is on your checklist, then you should opt for a Chedi Club Suite – pure unadulterated luxury, with to-die-for sunken terrazzo bathtubs, and all the added benefits of the Club Lounge. And if you book something facing the ocean, you're guaranteed the most fabulously photogenic views over the Gulf of Oman.

Six dining options span the world's greatest cuisines, from the Mediterranean and the Middle East, to South East Asia and India: with The Restaurant – its four open show kitchens a spectacle in themselves; The Arabian Courtyard and Shisha Lounge; and superb seafood at the ravishingly located seasonal Beach Restaurant all firmly at the top of our hotlist.

Three pools (one of which is the longest in the Middle East) peppered with dreamy cabanas, Moorish water gardens, and a private stretch of beach are yours for the taking, as are the two floodlit tennis courts. And after all that action, reward yourself with a signature massage at the divine Asian-inspired spa (Muscat's biggest).

BOOKING CONDITIONS

1. YOUR HOLIDAY CONTRACT

The holidays featured are operated by The Eden Collection Ltd ('the Company' /'we' /'us' /'our') which is registered in England under Company number 6664069. Your contract is with the Company and the following booking conditions, together with the information set out in 'Essential Reading' and the relevant brochure descriptions, will form the basis of your contract with the Company. We both agree that English law (and no other) will apply to your contract and to any dispute, claim or other matter of any description ('claim') which arises between us. We both also agree that any such claim (and whether or not involving any personal injury) must be dealt with by the Courts of England and Wales only unless, in the case of Court proceedings, you live in Scotland or Northern Ireland. In this case, proceedings must either be brought in the Courts of your home country or those of England and Wales. If proceedings are brought in Scotland or Northern Ireland, you may choose to have your contract and claim governed by the law of Scotland/Northern Ireland as applicable (but if you do not so choose, English law will apply). In these booking conditions, 'you' and 'your' means all persons named on the booking, or any of them as applicable (including anyone who is added or substituted at a later date). Except where otherwise stated, these booking conditions only apply to holiday arrangements which you book with us in the UK and which we agree to make, provide or perform (as applicable) as part of our contract with you. All references to 'booking', 'contract', 'holiday' or 'arrangements' mean such arrangements unless otherwise stated, 'accommodation' means the hotel, apartment or chalet which you have booked as part of your holiday and 'departure' means the start date of the arrangements you have booked with us.

2. YOUR FINANCIAL PROTECTION

For flights and flight inclusive arrangements, we provide security for the monies that you pay us and for your repatriation in the event of our insolvency by way of an ATOL number (9902) administered by the Civil Aviation Authority (CAA). When you buy an ATOL-protected air holiday package and/or flights from us, you will receive a confirmation invoice from us (or via our authorised travel agent) confirming your arrangements and your protection under the Company's ATOL*. In the unlikely event of our insolvency, the CAA will ensure that you are not stranded abroad and will arrange to refund any money you have paid to us for an advance booking. For further information, visit the ATOL website at www.atol.org.uk. Not all holiday or travel services offered by us are protected by the ATOL scheme, all non-air inclusive holiday packages* are protected by ABTA (Y6116). ABTA will financially protect your arrangements in the same way except that, if you are already abroad, you will be returned to the point where your contracted arrangements with us were due to finish. Please go to www.abta.com for a copy of the guide to ABTA's scheme of financial protection. The company does not provide financial protection for accommodation-only bookings.

*The air inclusive holidays we arrange are ATOL protected providing either the person who pays for the booking is present in the UK when the booking is made or the first leg of any flight or flights we arrange for you commences in the UK. Please note – some of the clauses in these booking conditions only apply to arrangements which constitute a 'package'. A package is a combination of at least two out of accommodation, transport and other tourist services, where bought from us at the same time, at an inclusive price. Therefore, these clauses will not apply to any 'accommodation only' (including villas) bookings. The clauses which only apply to packages are clearly identified below.

3. BOOKING

On making an enquiry with us or one of our authorised travel agents regarding a holiday booking, we will issue you with a quote. To secure your booking (subject to availability), you should telephone us or your authorised travel agent to confirm your booking and pay the relevant deposit as detailed in clause 4. All correspondence will be sent to the client at the address specified or, where you book through one of our authorised travel agents, to the agent. The person who makes the booking ('party leader') guarantees that he/she has the authority to accept and does accept on behalf of all members of your party, the terms of these booking conditions. The party leader accepts responsibility for paying for all persons named on the booking and for keeping them advised of the booking details and all information we send to you. A contract will exist between us as soon as we issue our confirmation invoice. Please check the contents of the invoice and all other items we send you carefully and, in the event of a discrepancy or error, contact us immediately as it may not be possible to make changes later. We regret we cannot accept any liability if we are not notified of any inaccuracy in any document within 14 days of our sending it out (5 days for tickets). We will do our best to rectify any mistake notified to us outside these time limits but you must meet any costs involved in doing so. The only exception to this requirement to meet costs is where the mistake in question was made by us and there is good reason why you did not tell us about it within these time limits.

4. PAYMENT/DEPOSIT

A minimum deposit of 10%, with a minimum of £250* per person of the total holiday cost must be paid at the time you confirm your booking. For villa and chalet bookings, a deposit of 30% of the total holiday cost is required. The amount of your deposit will be notified to you when we issue you with a quote. Approximately 12 weeks before the date your arrangements are due to commence, we will send you a final invoice. Where applicable, this invoice will show any surcharge which has become payable – see clause 6 'The Price You Pay'. The price of your holiday as shown on your final invoice will not increase. Usually, the balance of the cost of your arrangements must be received by us not less than 10 weeks before the date your arrangements are due to commence. If the booking is made within 10 weeks (or after the balance due date if earlier) of the date your arrangements are due to commence, the full cost of the holiday must be paid at the time of the booking. For some holidays or elements of holidays, full payment must be received earlier than 10 weeks in advance. We will advise you at the time of booking where this is the case. In the event that the balance is not paid by the due date, we have the right to treat your holiday as cancelled by you and you will forfeit all payments made or due at that date. Alteration or cancellation by a client of an accepted booking will be subject to the provisions of these booking conditions.

*Please note that higher deposits may be requested if prepayments to suppliers are necessary. All payments made at the time of booking are non-refundable except where otherwise specifically stated in these booking conditions.

NB: A selection of our airline fares require full payment at the time of booking and also carry 100% cancellation charges. If this is the case, we will advise you at the time of booking. We reserve the right to pass on 1.5% credit card charges for all holiday balance payments.

Except for flight inclusive bookings, all monies you pay to an authorised travel agent for your booking with us will be held by the agent on your behalf until we issue our confirmation invoice. After that point, the agent will hold the monies on our behalf until they are paid to us. For flight inclusive bookings all monies you pay to an authorised travel agent for your booking with us will be held by the travel agent on our behalf until they are paid to us or refunded to you.

5. SPECIAL REQUESTS AND DISABILITIES / MEDICAL PROBLEMS

If you have any special request, you must advise us in writing at the time of booking. Although we will endeavour to pass any reasonable requests on to the relevant supplier, we regret we cannot guarantee any request will be met unless we have specifically confirmed this. For your own protection, you should obtain confirmation in writing from us that your request will be complied with (where it is possible for us to give this) if your request is important to you. Confirmation that a special request has been noted or passed on to the supplier or the inclusion of the special request on your confirmation invoice or any other documentation is not confirmation that the request will be met. Unless and until specifically confirmed, all special requests are subject to availability. We regret we cannot accept any conditional bookings, i.e. any booking which is specified to be conditional on the fulfilment of a particular request. All such bookings will be treated as 'standard' bookings subject to the above provisions on special requests. If you have any medical problem or disability which may affect your arrangements or any special requirements as a result of any medical condition or disability (including any which affect the booking process), please tell us before you confirm your booking so that we can assist you in considering the suitability of your chosen arrangements and/or making the booking. In any event, you must give us full details in writing at the time of booking and whenever any change in the condition or disability occurs. You must also promptly advise us if any medical problem or disability develops after your booking has been confirmed which may affect your arrangements.

6. THE PRICE YOU PAY

Our price promise is based on a like-for-like quote at the same time of booking compared to suppliers' published/rack rates. The prices shown in this brochure were calculated on the basis of then known costs and exchange rates. We reserve the right to alter and correct errors in the prices of any of the holidays shown in this brochure. You will be advised of the current price of the holiday that you wish to book, at the time of booking. Once the price of your chosen holiday has been confirmed at the time of booking, then subject to the correction of errors, we will only increase or decrease the price in the following circumstances. A surcharge or refund (as applicable) will be payable, subject to the conditions set out in this clause, in the event of any change in our transportation costs or in dues, taxes or fees payable for services such as landing taxes or embarkation or disembarkation fees at ports or airports. We will not however surcharge for variations in exchange rates. Even in the above cases, only if the amount of any increase in our costs exceeds 5% of the total cost of your holiday (excluding any amendment charges) will we levy a surcharge. If any surcharge is greater than 10% of the cost of your holiday (excluding any amendment charges), you will be entitled to cancel your booking and receive a full refund of all monies you have paid to us (except for any amendment charges) or alternatively purchase another holiday from us as referred to in clause 11 'Cancellation or Changes Made by the Company'. Where applicable, you have 14 days from the issue date printed on the surcharge invoice to tell us if you want to choose option (b) or (c) as set out in clause 11 below. If you do not tell us that you wish to choose either of these options within this period of time, we are entitled to assume that you do not wish to do so and will pay the surcharge. Any surcharge must be paid with the balance of the cost of your arrangements. Please note that arrangements are not always purchased in local currency and some apparent changes have no impact on the price of your holiday due to contractual and other protection in place. A refund will only be payable if the decrease in our costs exceeds 5% of the total cost of your holiday as set out above. Where a refund is due, we will pay you the full amount of the decrease in our costs. We promise not to levy a surcharge after we send you our final invoice approximately 12 weeks prior to departure. No refund will be payable if any decrease in our costs occurs during this period either.

7. IF YOU CHANGE YOUR BOOKING

If, after your confirmation invoice has been issued, you wish to change your travel arrangements in any way, we will do our utmost to make these changes, however, please note that it may not always be possible. Any request for changes to be made must be in writing from the person who made the booking. You will be required to pay an administration charge of £45 per booking, plus any further costs we incur or our suppliers incur or impose in making this alteration. You should be aware that these costs could increase the closer to the departure date that changes are made, and you should contact us as soon as possible. NB: Certain travel arrangements, like many flight bookings for example, cannot be changed after a reservation has been made and, therefore, any alteration requests could incur a cancellation charge of up to 100% of that part of the arrangements, plus any additional charges for replacement services.

8. INABILITY TO TRAVEL

(This clause applies to packages only)

If any booked person is prevented from travelling on the holiday you booked due to genuine circumstances (such as your own personal injury or illness or the death or serious illness of a close relative), the Company will agree to that person's booking being transferred to another suitable person (introduced by you) provided they meet all the requirements relating to that holiday and, that the holiday arrangements remain the same apart from the name change. You must provide proof of why you are unable to travel, at the time you request to transfer your booking. The Company must be given reasonable notice of the transfer request and in any event, the booking cannot be transferred within 14 days of the date of departure. If the transfer can be made then an administration charge of £45 per booking together with all costs and charges levied or incurred by the suppliers must be paid before the transfer will be effected. For flight inclusive arrangements, you must pay the charges levied by the airline concerned. As most airlines do not permit name changes after tickets have been issued for any reason, these charges are likely to be the full cost of the original flight in addition to the cost of the new flight. Bookings may not be transferred to another person in any other circumstance. In the event of you transferring your booking to another person, you are jointly and severally liable for payment of the holiday cost and other associated expenses. The person to whom the booking is transferred must agree to be bound by these booking conditions.

9. CANCELLATIONS

You are required to pay the balance of your holiday by the due date, as shown on your invoice. If you do not, then the Company reserves the right to cancel the booking and retain your deposit. You may cancel your holiday arrangements, or any part of them, at any time. To make a cancellation, the party leader must write to the Company as soon as possible with full details. Since we incur costs in cancelling your holiday arrangements, you will have to pay the applicable cancellation charges as detailed below. Upon receipt of the written cancellation at our offices, the following charges will be levied depending on the number of days prior to departure:

Period before departure we receive written notification	Cancellation Fee
Before balance due date	Loss of deposit
Balance due date – 45 days	30% of balance plus loss of deposit
44-20 days	75% of balance plus loss of deposit
19-0 days	100% of balance plus loss of deposit
Day of departure or after	100% of total holiday cost

Where any cancellation affects the basis on which the cost of your holiday was calculated (for example, where as a result only one person will occupy a double/twin room), we will recalculate the cost and re-invoice you accordingly.

The above cancellation charges may vary to reflect the terms and conditions of the Company’s suppliers and some bookings are subject to 100% cancellation charges if cancelled at any time. You will be advised at the time of booking if the conditions vary and if higher cancellation charges apply.

NB: We strongly recommend that you have adequate TRAVEL INSURANCE including cancellation cover. If the reason for your cancellation is covered under the terms of your insurance policy, you may be able to reclaim these charges (less any applicable excess) from the insurance company.

10. ALTERATION TO A CONFIRMED BOOKING AFTER TRAVEL HAS COMMENCED

We regret that no credit or refund is possible for any unused services included in the cost of your holiday. If you decide to alter your travel arrangements whilst abroad this is your own responsibility and the Company is not responsible for any extras or difficulties that may arise with onward travel as a result of such alterations. No credit or refund is possible for any lost, mislaid, stolen or destroyed documents.

11.CANCELLATION OR CHANGES MADE BY THE COMPANY

Occasionally, we may have to make changes to your holiday arrangements and we reserve the right to do so at any time. Most of these changes will be minor and we will advise you of them at the earliest possible date. We also reserve the right in any circumstances to cancel your travel arrangements. We will not cancel your travel arrangements less than 8 weeks before your departure date, except for reasons of ‘force majeure’ (see clause 12) or failure by you to pay the final balance.

NB: Carriers, such as airlines, referred to in the brochure may be subject to change. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. Other examples of minor changes include alteration of your outward/return flights by less than 12 hours, change to different accommodation of the same standard and changes to aircraft type (where advised).

If we have to make a significant change before the date your arrangements are due to commence we will inform you or your travel agent as soon as reasonably practical. Significant changes are changes to your confirmed arrangements such as a change of UK airport to one which is more inconvenient to you (except as between Heathrow, Gatwick and Stansted), a change of resort or accommodation to a lower category/standard or an alteration to the outward or return time of your international flight (where arranged by us) by more than 12 hours. If there is time to do so we will offer you the choice of:

- a) accepting the changed arrangements, or
- b) purchasing other arrangements from us, or
- c) cancelling your arrangements and receiving a full refund of all monies you have paid to us

Please note, the above options are not available where any change made is a minor one.

If we have to make a significant change or cancel less than 8 weeks before the date your arrangements are due to commence we will pay you the compensation payments set out in the table below depending on the circumstances and when the significant change or cancellation is notified to you subject to the following exceptions. Compensation will not be payable and no liability beyond offering the above-mentioned choices can be accepted where we are forced to make a change or cancel as a result of unusual and unforeseeable circumstances beyond our control, the consequences of which we could not have avoided even with all due care. No compensation will be payable and the above options will not be available if we cancel as a result of your failure to comply with any requirement of these booking conditions entitling us to cancel (such as paying on time) or if the change made is a minor one.

Period before departure a significant change or cancellation is notified to you or your travel agent	Compensation per person
56-35 days	£50 per person
34-15 days	£75 per person
14-0 days	£100 per person

Very rarely, we may be forced by ‘force majeure’ (see clause 12) to change or terminate your arrangements after they have commenced but before their scheduled end. This is extremely unlikely but if this situation does occur, we will try to obtain refunds for any unused services from our suppliers. If we are successful we will pass these on to you after deducting our own costs in obtaining them. If we are not successful we regret we cannot give you any refund as this situation is totally outside our control. We cannot pay you any compensation or be responsible for any costs or expenses incurred by you as a result. In accordance with EU Regulation 2111/2005 we are required to bring to your attention the existence of a ‘Community List’ of airlines which are subject to an operating ban in the EU and to advise you of the actual carrier operating your flight/connecting flight/transfer or, if not known, the likely carrier. We do this by listing the carriers to be used or likely to be used in the Airline Information pages and, where known, advising you of the operating airline at the time of booking. Any changes to the actual airline after you have received your tickets will be notified to you as soon as possible and in all cases at check-in or at the boarding gate. Such a change is deemed to be a minor change. The Community List of banned carriers is available for inspection at http://ec.europa.eu/transport/air-ban/list_en.htm If the carrier with whom you have a confirmed reservation becomes subject to an operating ban as above as a result of which we/the carrier are unable to offer you a suitable alternative, the above provisions of this clause 11 where a significant change is made will apply.

12. FORCE MAJEURE

Except where otherwise expressly stated in these booking conditions, we regret we cannot accept liability or pay any compensation where the performance or prompt performance of our contractual obligations is prevented or affected by, or you otherwise suffer any damage, loss or expense of any nature as a result of, ‘force majeure’. Circumstances amounting to ‘force majeure’ include any event that we or the supplier of the services in question could not, even with all due care, foresee or avoid such as (whether actual or threatened) war, civil strife, riot, terrorist activity, industrial dispute, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, sickness, weather conditions, the acts of any government or public authority and all similar events which are beyond our control. Please note that we are reliant on information provided by the Foreign Office.

13. RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE COMPANY

(Clause 13(1) applies to packages only)

(1) We promise to make sure that the arrangements we have agreed to make, perform or provide as applicable as part of our contract with you are made, performed or provided with reasonable skill and care. This means that, subject to these booking conditions, we will accept responsibility if, for example, you suffer death or personal injury or your contracted arrangements are not provided as promised or prove deficient as a result of the failure of ourselves, our employees, agents or suppliers to use reasonable skill and care in making, performing or providing, as applicable, your contracted arrangements. Please note it is your responsibility to show that reasonable skill and care has not been used if you wish to make a claim against us. In addition, we will only be responsible for what our employees, agents and suppliers do or do not do if they were at the time acting within the course of their employment (for employees) or carrying out work we had asked them to do (for agents and suppliers).

(2) We will not be responsible for any injury, illness, death, loss (including loss of possessions and loss of enjoyment), damage, expense, cost or other sum or claim of any description whatsoever which results from any of the following:

- the act(s) and/or omission(s) of the person(s) affected or any member(s) of their party or
- the act(s) and/or omission(s) of a third party not connected with the provision of your arrangements and which were unforeseeable or unavoidable or
- ‘force majeure’ as defined in clause 12 above

(3) Please note, we cannot accept responsibility for any services which do not form part of our contract. This includes, for example, any additional services or facilities which your accommodation or any other supplier agrees to provide for you where the services or facilities are not advertised in our brochure/on our website and we have not agreed to arrange them as part of our contract and any excursion you purchase during your holiday. Please also see clause 17 ‘Excursions and Activities.’ In addition, regardless of any wording used by us on our website, in any of our brochures or elsewhere, we only promise to use reasonable skill and care as set out above and we do not have any greater or different liability to you.

(4) The promises we make to you about the services we have agreed to provide or arrange as part of our contract – and the laws and regulations of the country in which your claim or complaint occurred – will be used as the basis for deciding whether the services in question had been properly provided. If the particular services which gave rise to the claim or complaint complied with local laws and regulations applicable to those services at the time, the services will be treated as having been properly provided. This will be the case even if the services did not comply with the laws and regulations of the UK which would have applied had those services been provided in the UK. The exception to this is where the claim or complaint concerns the absence of a safety feature which might lead a reasonable holiday maker to refuse to take the arrangements in question.

(5) For all claims which do not involve death or personal injury or luggage or personal possessions, if we are found liable to you on any basis, the maximum amount we will have to pay you is twice the price (excluding amendment charges) paid by or on behalf of the person(s) affected in total unless a lower limitation applies to your claim under clause 13(6) below or elsewhere in these booking conditions. This maximum amount will only be payable where everything has gone wrong and you have not received any benefit at all from your arrangements.

Where we are found liable for loss of and/or damage to any luggage or personal possessions (including money), the maximum we will have to pay you is £1000 per person affected unless a lower limitation applies to your claim under this clause or clause 13(6) below. You must ensure you have appropriate travel insurance to protect your belongings.

(6) Where any claim or part of a claim (including those involving death or personal injury) concerns or is based on any travel arrangements (including the process of getting on and/or off the transport concerned) provided by any air, sea or rail carrier to which any international convention or regulation applies, the maximum amount of compensation we will have to pay you will be limited. The most we will have to pay you for that claim or that part of a claim if we are found liable to you on any basis is the most the carrier concerned would have to pay under the international convention or regulation which applies to the travel arrangements in question (for example, the Warsaw Convention as amended or unamended and the Montreal Convention 1999 for international travel by air and/or for airlines with an operating licence granted by an EU country, the EU Regulation on Air Carrier Liability for national and international travel by air, the Athens Convention for international travel by sea or COTIF, the Convention on International Travel by Rail).

Please note: Where a carrier would not be obliged to make any payment to you under the applicable international convention or regulation in respect of a claim or part of a claim, we similarly are not obliged to make a payment to you for that claim or part of the claim. When making any payment, we are entitled to deduct any money which you have received or are entitled to receive from the carrier for the claim in question. Copies of the applicable International Conventions and Regulations are available from us on request.

(7) We cannot accept any liability for any damage, loss, expense or other sum(s) of any description (a) which on the basis of the information given to us by you concerning your booking prior to our accepting it, we could not have foreseen you would suffer or incur if we breached our contract with you or (b) which did not result from any breach of contract or other fault by ourselves or our employees or, where we are responsible for them, our suppliers. Additionally we cannot accept liability for any losses or expenses which relate to any business (including self-employed loss of earnings).

14. YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES

(1) It is your responsibility to arrive at the correct departure point in good time before departure and any loss, damage or expense which you suffer through failure to do so lies with you. We cannot accept any liability if you miss your flight or any other form of transport.

(2) At all times, you must behave in a reasonable and responsible manner towards any other person you meet in the course of your travel arrangements. Full payment for any such damage or loss (reasonably estimated if not precisely known) must be made direct to the accommodation owner or manager or other supplier or to us as soon as possible. If the actual cost of the loss or damage exceeds the amount paid where estimated, you must pay the difference once known. If the actual cost is less than the amount paid, the difference will be refunded. You will also be responsible for meeting any claims subsequently made against us and all costs incurred by us (including our own and the other party's full legal costs) as a result of your actions. You should ensure you have appropriate travel insurance to protect you if this situation arises. If in our reasonable opinion or in the reasonable opinion of any other person in authority, you behave in such a way as to cause or be likely to cause danger, upset or distress to any third party or damage to property, we are entitled, without prior notice, to terminate the arrangements of the person(s) concerned. We will have no further responsibility toward such person(s) including any return travel arrangements. No refunds will be made and we will not pay any expenses or costs incurred as a result of the termination.

(3) You must take all sensible precautions to protect your own safety and well-being while you are on holiday. Please ensure you are familiar with the layout of your hotel or other accommodation and in particular the location of fire exits, escape routes and alarms as soon as possible after arrival. Children of all ages should be appropriately supervised at all times given local safety standards may be very different to those found in the UK, particularly in the vicinity of swimming pools and balconies which present inherent risks. Balconies may not be enclosed in a way which would prevent a child or adult falling from them. Swimming pools may not have regular or reliable depth markings and may contain unexpected and unmarked changes of depth. Swimming pool surrounds may be slippery when wet. You must personally familiarise yourself with the depth of the pool and any hazards it contains. The pool should be checked before every use and any apparent defects immediately reported. You must not enter any pool after drinking any alcohol, even a moderate amount, or when it is closed and must not dive into it except into any area which is specifically designated as suitable for diving and then only after you have personally checked the depth.

(4) Any passports, visas, health certificates, international driving licences and other immigration requirements and travel documents required for the holiday must be obtained by the client, whose responsibility it remains to ensure that these are all in order and to meet any additional costs incurred (whether by the client or by the Company on the client's behalf) as a result of failure to comply with such requirements.

15. CONDITIONS OF CARRIAGE

The contractual terms of the companies that provide the transportation for your travel arrangements will apply to this contract. These may contain terms which affect your rights to compensation. You can request copies of the relevant conditions of carriage from our offices. This brochure is our responsibility, as your travel company. It is not issued on behalf of, and does not commit the airlines mentioned herein or any airline whose services are used in the course of your travel arrangements. Scheduled airlines' prices are based on fares current at the time of print. All airlines are subject to operational delays, change of aircraft and routing, over which we have no control. In the unlikely event that this does happen, arrangements for meals, overnight accommodation, etc. should be met by your airline. Conditions of carriage are available on request.

NB: In accordance with Air Navigation Orders, in order to qualify for infant status, a child must be under 2 years of age on the date of his/her return flight.

16. BROCHURE DESCRIPTION, FREE OFFERS AND SINGLE SUPPLEMENTS

All information concerning the hotels, villas and resorts used by the Company is continually checked to ensure that it is correct at the time of advertising. Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of descriptions and information. However, we are not always able to control all the components of the holiday arrangements and it is possible that an advertised facility may be withdrawn or changed, due to weather conditions, lack of demand or for maintenance, renovation etc. If you are a single traveller, or your party consists of a number less than the accommodation sleeps, a supplement will be levied. This is because our contract is based on a price per room/villa/chalet, whilst our holidays are sold on a per person basis, including flights and other elements. Some hotels do offer rooms that only sleep one person and, in this instance, there will normally be a supplement. Pictures of rooms shown in the brochure may not illustrate the room booked or that available with lead-in prices.

17. EXCURSIONS AND ACTIVITIES

We may provide you with information (before departure and/or when you are on holiday) about activities and excursions which are available in the area you are visiting. We have no involvement in any such activities or excursions which are neither run, supervised nor controlled in any way by us. They are provided by local operators or other third parties who are entirely independent of us. They do not form any part of your contract with us even where we suggest particular operators/other third parties and/or assist you in booking such activities or excursions in any way. We cannot accept any liability on any basis in relation to such activities or excursions and the acceptance of liability contained in clause 13(1) of our booking conditions will not apply to them. Where we or your accommodation supplier/manager make or take any booking for or from you in respect of any activity or excursion available outside your accommodation, we or the accommodation manager/supplier, as applicable, do so solely as booking agent. This is the case regardless of whether the activity or excursion is advertised or mentioned in our brochure, in resort, on our website or elsewhere. Your contract for any such activity or excursion will be with the supplier or operator of that activity or excursion. We have no liability for any such activity or excursion or for any act(s) or omission(s) of the supplier or operator or for any of its/their employees or agents or any other person(s) connected with the activity or excursion. If we or the accommodation manager/supplier are found liable in any respect for any such activity or excursion (for example in our capacity as booking agent), that liability is limited to the cost of the particular activity or excursion concerned.

Where your accommodation supplier/manager (e.g. your hotel) makes or takes a booking for or from you in respect of an activity, facility or service provided by the accommodation supplier/manager but which is not advertised in our brochure or on our website and we have not taken any payment from you for this activity, facility or service, your contract for that activity, facility or service is directly with the hotel and not us. We have no liability for any such activity, facility or service or for any act(s) or omission(s) of the accommodation supplier/manager or for any of its/their employees or agents or any other person(s) connected with the activity service or facility. If however we are found liable in any respect for any such activity or excursion that liability is limited to the price you paid for the particular activity, facility or excursion concerned.

Nothing in this clause 17 shall be construed as an attempt by us to exclude liability for the negligence of ourselves or our employees resulting in your death or personal injury.

18. COMPLAINTS

Should you have a problem or any cause for complaint during your holiday, you must immediately inform the relevant supplier (e.g. your hotelier, chalet management company, airline) and our resort representative (where applicable) who will endeavour to rectify the problem while you are on holiday. If your problem or complaint remains unresolved, please telephone us on 01244 567 000 reversing the costs of the call, or call the emergency contact numbers as detailed in your itinerary. In the unlikely event that matters cannot be resolved to your satisfaction in the resort, please follow this up within 28 days of your return by writing to our Client Services Department at Eden Luxury Travel, No.1 Heritage Court, Lower Bridge Street, Chester, Cheshire, CH1 1RD, giving your booking reference/details of your booking and all other relevant information. It is strongly recommended that you communicate any problem or complaint to the supplier of the services in question as well as to our representative (where applicable) without delay and complete a report form whilst in resort. If you fail to follow this simple procedure we will have been deprived of the opportunity to investigate and rectify your problem or complaint whilst you were in resort and this may affect your rights under your contract with us.

19. DATA PROTECTION

We will only process the personal data we collect from you as permitted by the Data Protection Act 1998 and in accordance with our Data Protection Privacy Policy which appears on our website at www.edenluxurytravel.co.uk.

20. BROCHURE/PRICE VALIDITY

This brochure is valid for the period January to December 2020. The prices shown are for guidance purposes only, were correct at the time of publication but will change during the lifetime of this brochure. The up-to-date, applicable price for your chosen arrangements will be provided on enquiry or at the time of booking. E&OE, published October 2019.
